Dr. McDill Guest Speaker Visitor Honored At Home Arts Club

Dr. T. H. McDill, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Gastonia, and president of the North Carolina Poetry Society was guest speaker at the meeting of the Home Arts Club at the home of Mrs. Troy Carpenter, on Gold Street, Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. McDill, who is a writer of note and has won a number of awards for his poems, was introduced by Mrs. R. N. Baird, chairman of the program committee.

The speaker captivated his audience from the first and held their attention throughout. Among his own poems read was "Kings Mountain," inspired by the mountain near our town.

Mrs. Grady King presided over the business session of the club and at the conclusion of the program the hostess served a salad and sweet course.

Mrs. Carpenter's home was attractively arranged with spring flowers.

Bride Honored At Lovely Party

Mrs. Glenn David Freeman, nee Miss Ozelle Kiser, was the inspiration of a lovely party given by Mrs. John Gamble at her home on West Mountain street on Saturday afternoon.

The rooms were thrown together and arranged with quantities of beautiful spring flowers.

Eight tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. George Houser scoring high and Mrs. W. M. Craft, low. Each received attractive trophies.

Mrs. Freeman, the honoree, was presented a gift. Mrs. Harold Coggin, Mrs. Humes Houston, Mrs. Ed Alexander of Lexington and Mrs. Paul Kennedy of Shelby, were each presented gifts.

A tempting salad course with accessories and a sweet course was served. The bride's place was marked with miniature wedding slippers decorated with love birds.
