

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON,

BRIDE AND OTHERS HONORED AT LOVELY TEA

Honoring Mrs. R. C. Etheridge, nee Miss Dorothy Patterson, a June Bride, Mrs. J. R. Davis was hostess entertaining at her home on East Mountain street, Friday afternoon. The tea which was one of the largest and loveliest social affairs of the season also complimented a number of other brides of recent months and out-of-town visitors.

The entire lower floor was arranged with gladioli, roses and mixed garden flowers.

Guests were welcomed in the entrance hall by Mrs. M. A. Ware. Mrs. E. W. Grigin presented them to the receiving line composed of the following: Mrs. J. R. Davis, the hostess, wearing pink lace and chiffon; Mrs. R. C. Etheridge, wearing white silk jersey, with trimming bands of bright red silk jersey and corsage of bright red glads; Mrs. A. H. Patterson in pink monsellon-de-soie with lace bodice; Miss Emily Davis of Shelby, wearing a quaint ruffled dress of printed muslin; Miss Nell DeLoach of Shelby, in white marquisette; Mrs. George Plonk, nee Miss Margaret Cooper, in blue marquisette with lace; Mrs. Harold Cogkins, in pink organdie; Mrs. Humes Houston, wearing powder puff muslin, sprigged with yellow rose buds; Mrs. J. L. Sellmyer, Jr., wearing yellow lace over yellow foundation; Mrs. Ivan Rosenthal of New York City, in aqua chiffon and Mrs. Jesse Kiser of Charlotte in black chiffon and lace.

Mrs. Myron Rhyne and Mrs. Grady King directed to the dining room where ice cream and cakes decorated with dainty valley lilies, mints and salted nuts was served by Misses Maude Plonk, Dorothy Hoke and guest, Miss Menefee Bennett of Norwood. Janie Davis of Shelby and Alda Jean Davis assisted by Mrs. F. E. Finger, Mrs. T. G. Hudspeth and Miss Annie Mae Ware.

The dining table was spread with imported lace, with floral decorations in the bridal motif. White candles in crystal holders on table and buffet completed the appointments of the dining room.

Mrs. Proctor Thompson and Mrs. W. H. Howard directed guests to the den where the register was kept by Mrs. J. S. Norman and Mrs. J. T. Anthony.

Mrs. Charles Thomasson and Mrs. W. T. Weir received in the sun room where refreshing punch was served by Miss Mildred Lowrance of Mooresville, Miss Louise Morris of Charlotte and Miss Elizabeth Neill.

Mrs. M. H. Biser and Mrs. W. M. Gantt directed to the east porch where goodbyes were said by Mrs. I. B. Goforth and Mrs. B. S. Peeler. Mesdames E. L. Campbell, L. F. Neal, B. M. Ormand, M. L. Houser and H. T. Fulton entertained on the lawn.

Delightful piano music was furnished throughout calling hours by Mrs. Percy Dilling, Miss Mary Foust Plonk and Mrs. N. F. McGill.

DON'T BE BOSSSED BY YOUR LAXATIVE—RELIEVE CONSTIPATION THIS MODERN WAY

When you feel gassy, headachy, lousy due to clogged-up bowels, do as millions do—take Feen-A-Mint at bedtime. Next morning—thorough, comfortable relief, helping you start the day full of your normal energy and pep. Being like a million, Feen-A-Mint doesn't disturb your night's rest or interfere with work the next day. Try Feen-A-Mint, the chewing gum laxative, yourself. It tastes good, it's handy and economical... a family supply costs only its first anniversary in Scouting last Thursday in the recreation hall of St. Matthews Lutheran Church. The Scouts were dressed as "kds." Sunflowers and a huge cake decorated with one lighted candle formed the table decorations.

A toast to the committee members was given by Scout Gillespie and responded to by Mrs. Philip Baker, Jr.

A resume of the Scout procedures for the year was given by the Scout individuals.

Emelyn Gillespie received the Handy Woman's Badge and the Housekeeper's Badge. Mary Ann Crouse, Janet McGinnis, Evelyn Edeas and Mildred Rippy, received second class rank; Ethel Carroll, Nancy Bollinger, Mae Jackson and Charlotte Jenkins, Tenderfoot rank. The troop was presented a 'roop flag by the Myrtle Derrick Missionary Society.

Nursery rhymes and a scavenger hunt furnished the fun for the afternoon after which the Scout enjoyed cake, ice cream, salted nuts and Coca-cola.

Invited guests were the Committee members, Misses Rebekah Smith of Shelby and Betty Jean Poplin of Gastonia.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Wray Plonk announce the birth of a son, in City Hospital, Gastonia, Wednesday, July 30th. The baby's name Wray Augustus Plonk, Jr.

HOSTESS AT BRIDGE PARTY

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Geo. Peeler was a charming hostess at a small bridge party at her home.

The rooms were arranged with bowls of lovely summer flowers.

Before the game, the hostess served a delicious salad course with punch.

High score award went to Mrs. Myron Rhyne and low score award to Mrs. C. F. Thomasson.

MEETING OF HOME ARTS CLUB

Mrs. Myron Rhyne entertained members of the Home Arts Club and invited guests on last Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were arranged with colorful gladioli.

Mrs. Grady King, the president, presided and during the business session one new member, Mrs. Luther Canister, was elected.

Mrs. J. E. Herndon had charge of the program which consisted of the reading of Alice Duer Miller's "White Cliffs of Dover" beautifully given by Mrs. Myron Rhyne. At intervals throughout the reading, Miss Corfeen Campbell played appropriate piano selections.

A delicious salad course and hot and cold ice cream and cake was served.

T. E. L. CELEBRATES 25th ANNIVERSARY

On July 11th the T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist church celebrated its 25th year of organization with a party held in the T. E. L. and Eunice classrooms of the church. Mesdames C. A. Oates, Earl Ledford and W. C. Ledford greeted the members and guests as they arrived, directing them into the party rooms which were tastefully decorated in white and green.

Mrs. C. A. Oates, president of the class for several years, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Monroe Rhea, president of the Eunice class, responded.

Mrs. Earl Ledford had charge of a very interesting program which included the class history and the recognition of the charter members who were present. Misses Sybil Davis and Gloria Cornwell entertained with several vocal selections and Mary Beth Hord gave a reading.

The cake, a beautiful creation in white, was given to Mrs. W. S. Mauney who is the oldest member of the class and also one of the charter members of the church.

At the conclusion of the program a tasty and attractive salad course was served.

Among the many guests present for the occasion was Mrs. Nye, a former teacher of the class who has been away from Kings Mountain for several years.
