ELLIOTT-THOMAS WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN HOME CEREMONY

Mrs. Lucille Pettus Thomas and Mr. Bill Elliott, both of Charlotte, were wed in a simple but impressive ceremony, last Friday evening August 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt Ware in Kings Mountain. The bride is a cousin of Mrs. Ware.

The ceremony took place at eight o'clock and was performed by Rev. P. Patrick, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Kings Mountain. Only relatives and close friends attended the wedding.

An improvised altar was arranged in the bay window of the living room, and attractively decorated with ferns, clematis vine and two floor baskets filled with white gladioli and asters. Seven branched candelabra bearing lighted white tapers flanked the sides of the altar and completed the attractive setting.

For the wedding music, Mrs. R. P. Reid, organist of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Tabernacle of Charlotte, played "Liebestraum" by Liszt and Mrs. Nell Padgett Norris, soprano, of Charlotte, sang "Because" by De Hardlot, and "At Dawning" by Cadman. For the professional The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played, and for the recessional Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used.

The bride and bridegroom entered from the rear hall unattended.

The bride wore a becoming street dress of teal blue with off the face black velvet hat and short veil, carrying a four-skinned mink scarf. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of orchids.

After the ceremony an informal reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Ware.

The dining room had been made lovely with bowls of white flowers and hurricane lamps holding white tapers. The table spread with a handsome lace cloth, had for its centerpiece a two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and surrounded by silver candlesticks holding white tapers.

Mildred ices in bridal white and green were served with the bride's cake and iced punch.

Listing in receiving were Mrs. Paul Monty and Mrs. E. D. Michael cousins of the bride, Mrs. Merritt Baggott of Los Angeles, Calif., guest in the Ware home, Mr. and Mrs. John McGill, Mr. W. A. Ware and Miss Ava Ware of Kings Mountain.

After a wedding trip to New York and other northern points, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will make their home in Charlotte.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Deal, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Edge, Mrs. Glenn Rogers, Miss Mildred Rogers, Mr. Carl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. R. Reid, Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Paul Monty and little daughter, Kitty Jane, and Mrs. E. D. Michael, all of Charlotte; Mrs. W. M. Baggott, of Los Angeles, Calif.
