Of interest to Herald readers is the following announcement: Mr. and Mrs. John Malon James announce the marriage of their daughter

Jessie Louise to Mr. Roy Lee Russell on Sunday, the thirty-first of August nineteen hundred and forty-one Chesterfield, S. C.

Miss James lived in Kings Mountain during her high school days and has many friends here.

MEETING OF D. A. R.

Miss Carlyle Ware was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to members of the Colonel Frederick Ham-bright chapter D. A. R. for the initial fall meeting.

Miss Ware's apartment was arranged with lovely flowers.

Mrs. F. R. Summers presided and routine business was transacted. Stress was laid on the coming district meeting to be held in Charlotte on Sept. 25, at which time Mrs. D. C. Mauney, vice director of the district, filling out the term of Mrs. Shackelford, director, will preside.

Mrs. J. E. Herndon had charge of the program on the "Constitution." Mrs. W. T. Weir told of the Geginning of the Constitution, and Mrs. C. D. Blanton read a paper, "The Constitution Speaks."

Delicious refreshments in two courses were served.

HOSTESS ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Mary Frances Ware was the inspiration of a most enjoyable "Tacky Party," given by her sister in-law, Mrs. DeWitt Ware, in the hut on their back lawn. The hut was decorated in keeping with the occasion.

Dancing and games were enjoyed with Skimp Stowe furnishing music for the occasion. Miss Frances Goforth won the prize for the "stakkiest costume." The honoree received a shower of lovely gifts.

A rozen, ruit salad with accessories and sweets was served.
