LOCAL COMMENT ON WAR

The Herald Reporter on his rounds since Monday asked different citizens "What's your stand on the war?" Here is their answer:

P. D. Patrick, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church: "Before the attack I thought Japan could be defeated in a few weeks now I realize it will take the uttermost team work of our whole country and many more months to do the job but it must be done."

Frederick Tulwell, City employee: "It is bad isn't it but we are going to whip them."

Capt. G. C. O'Farrell, retired Captain: "As far as I am concerned, I wish I could go back about 20 years and help whip the Japs."

B. D. Batterbee, Magistrate: "It is mighty serious, and now we must put forth every effort to beat them."

E. C. McClain, of Hard Furniture Co.: "I don't know whether I want to be quoted or not, because I am so mad about it. When a man walks up to you and slaps you in the back it's time to do something about it."

W. W. Souther, Jeweler and former Naval Officer: "It had to come and I smell a mess of Japanese back coming up. I am glad they made the first move."

Willey H. McGinnis, of Rowland Bros. Motor Co.: "If a man comes to your front door and calls you out while a partner slips around to the back and murders your family, it's time to wipe somebody up. The Japs are in for a beating they have asked for and deserve."

Ladd Harick, Executive of the Phoenix Mill: "Because of the way Japan attacked America is united, and united we'll give them the licking they deserve."

Otto Ware, Blacksmith: "I was on the Oklahoma once, and I hate for the ship to have been sunk, and I would like to help kill a few Japs myself."

Jimmy Burns, Chief of Police: "You can't put in the paper what I think."

Charlie Sheppard, Deputy Sheriff: "Their first attack was pretty bad for us, but we'll beat the tar out of them."

Eugene Matthews, Linotype Operator: "We are at last a twar with the Japs, it has been coming for a long time, and now we will give them the licking they have asked for."

Charles S. Williams, Executive of the Freddie Mig. Co.: "I think Uncle Sam should kick out all foreigners in the army."

Martin Hoover, Kings Mountain Police Department: "We should not be too quick to believe what we hear good for the other side, because most of it is propaganda."

Laughing Around the World With ERVIN S. COOK

A Martian Aspect

By ERVIN S. COOK

IT WAS a beautiful night with a full moon riding high in the heavens. Officer McCann, strolling along a peaceful by-path in the park, happened to see a well-dressed man crossing the meadow of a hillside, dressed down to his feathered cap and an umbrella. McCann's mind could hardly single out a plan for

"I'm going to find a strong gate in the enclosed enclosure," he thought to himself, "and then I'll catch the big man."

McCann's thoughts were interrupted by a sudden noise from the bushes. "There's someone in there," he said to himself.

"I'm going to find a strong gate in the enclosed enclosure," he thought to himself, "and then I'll catch the big man."

"I'm going to find a strong gate in the enclosed enclosure," he thought to himself, "and then I'll catch the big man."

"I'm going to find a strong gate in the enclosed enclosure," he thought to himself, "and then I'll catch the big man."

"I'm going to find a strong gate in the enclosed enclosure," he thought to himself, "and then I'll catch the big man."
