

100 Jobs That Can Be Done TO MAKE

BETTER HOMES

THERE'S no use being a Pollyanna under present conditions but neither is there any point in ignoring or neglecting the work you CAN have done. Too many people are talking about what they can't do. Well, here is a list of 100 jobs that under most conditions, and with due reference to reasonable cost, can be done at the present time, even under war conditions. After all this war isn't going to last forever, and in the meantime the job of every homeowner is to carry on and keep his home in good repair. There are hundreds of jobs that can still be done — useful work that is necessary to keep America's housing and structural plant in shape.
