Here and There

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Herndon recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, which was on the same date as Louisa's 10th birthday.

Here's a true story: There's a car that registered with the local draft board who has had quite a bit to say in regards to how the board was running their job.

Here's another true story: Chairman Frank Summers received a long distance call from Charlotte one night from a fellow who represented himself to be an agent of the F. B. I.

Here's another true story with a moral: Charlie and Ruth Thomas spent the past week and in Charlotte. Upon return home they found their house had been ransacked by a burglar.

Here's an idea that has been presented to your Editor: There is not as much need locally this year for Christmas giving to under-privileged families as most folks are working.

One of the prize possessions of the family of Jacob Huffstetter, who lost his life in the service of his country, is a Bible that was presented to each member of the crew of the ship by Franklin D. Roosevelt.

I mentioned the report last week of our New York trip that Aubrey and I went to Church Sunday morning at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Add to Your List of Merchants Who Are As Friendly When They Are Paying You A Bill As When Telling You Something: Don Stanton, Byron Keeter, and Geo. Bridges.

Congratulations to Kings Mountain Merchants On Closing Two Yays For Christmas so that their clerks may enjoy a prolonged holiday from Thursday night until Monday morning.

Get His Money Joe Thomson to tell you the jobs about rationing.

Office For War Information VA, N. C., S. C. REGIONAL OFFICE

The United Nations, it is estimated now are producing twice as much combat equipment as the Axis and by the end of next year it is expected that the United States alone will produce almost as much a volume of fighting weapons as all the rest of the world combined.

But at the same time our total national income has steadily been rising until it has reached a level of about 115 billion dollars a year.

Part of our 10 billion dollar surplus buying power will be drained off by additional taxes, while voluntary restrictions in buying and voluntary savings also will help check the rise in living costs.

POINT-RATIONING IS NEEDED: The present coupon "fit system" is well adapted to rationing such products as sugar and coffee, which can be divided up on a simple per capita basis.

Whatever the details of the measures used in controlling prices, it is certain that everyone concerned with handling merchandise, from raw materials to finished products, must keep records and engage in bookkeeping to an extent that would not be necessary under peacetime conditions.

EMPLOYMENTS MUST BE WOMEN: Employers of labor, on the other hand, must keep detailed records of their current labor supply in order to meet production schedules.

CAMEL CIGARETTES: IN THE ARMY they say: "CAMEL" is a brand who is sure to turn "WINNING GAMES" for you. THE PACK FOR ME IS CAMEL. I FIND THEY'RE GREATER BY FAR... AND THAT FULL FLAVOR IS GREAT!
