

The Kings Mountain Herald

HERALD PUBLISHING HOUSE, Kings Mountain, N. C.

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Kings Mountain, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year $1.50, Six months .85, Four months .60, Three months .35

A weekly newspaper devoted to the promotion of the general welfare and published for the enlightenment, entertainment and benefit of the citizens of Kings Mountain and its vicinity.

LIFE'S GREATEST JOY: Have you ever helped another? Ever earned a grateful smile? Ever looked a weary traveler in the eye with you a mile?

Has a thrill of pride possessed you? Have you felt your pulses run? As a weaker brother bleat you? For some good that you had done?

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS: A minister in a certain town in Alabama took permanent leave of his congregation in the following manner:

"Brothers and sisters, I come to say goodbye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me, because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy apples, and by their fruits ye shall know them."

DISTRUST: It is a human frailty that prevents one generation from understanding and trusting another. A young man of twenty-five will go into business and surround himself with others of his own age or less.

THIS GLORIOUS THING: This is the time to bring out the old words and dust them off. Words like Liberty, Democracy, Freedom, Independence - battle-cry words that served us through the darkness of other wars.

This is the time, too, that we take stock of the stuff these words are made of. Words, even the great ones, wear thin with use. We need new inventories of the things they mean. It isn't definitions we want - they are for dictionaries. You can't "define" freedom for a man - you have to point it out to him.

Freedom is a man at the lathe, or at the desk, doing the job he likes to do and speaking up for himself.

It is a man in the pulpit or on the street corner, speaking his mind.

It is a man in his garden in the evening and swapping "talk" with his neighbor over the fence.

It is the unselfishness of a man and women and children at the beach on Sunday or looking out car windows speeding along a four-lane highway.

It is a man saying "Howdy stranger" without looking cautious by over his shoulder.

It is the people of the country making up their own minds.

It is a soprano singing the Star-Spangled Banner off key, and meaning every word of it.

Freedom is the air you breathe and the sweat you sweat. It is all the things you might have come, and all the things you will do if the breaks are right.

Here and There

By Haywood E. Lynch

Charlie Thomason said that all he heard last week when the weather was rainy and cold was victory gardening, but now that the weather is pretty he hasn't heard it mentioned.

Last week I mentioned in this column two families, the Campbell Phifers and the Press McGills who have furnished 100 percent of their man power to the Armed Services. I have heard of three more families to add to this patriotic list: Mrs. Fred Finger, with Dan, Fred and Carl; Mr. and Mrs. Z. F. Crawford, with Marvin, Frank, Willard and Carol; and Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Anthony, with James and William.

Only five out of the nine of the Directors of the Home Building and Loan Association have sons, yet eleven men from these families are now in the Armed Services of their country. Hunter Patterson, who like myself, was never blessed with a "man-child" qualifies for list by having a son-in-law doing his part out in the Pacific in Uncle Sam's Navy. An advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue honoring the "fighting men" of the Directors of this patriotic institution.

We mailed out quite a number of subscription expiration notices last week, one of them to William Nord, way up in Bridgeport, Conn. This week, his brother Charlie Nord walked into the office with the notice in his hand to pay up and subscribe to The Herald himself. He had brought the notice all the way home with him so that he would not forget to pay his brother's subscription.

Arthur May, one of Kings Mountain's most fluent Sunday School teachers, is quite a guy. He can remember when he returned from Texas back in 1914 to the Best Town in The State, and all about a certain stop that the train made way down in Oklahoma.

East Kings Mtn. News

Mrs. Wesley Robinson who has been quite ill for the past two weeks is much improved at this writing.

Miss Chloe Lynn who suffered an attack of appendicitis Monday was rushed to the Garrison Hospital in Gastonia for treatment and possible operation.

Miss Janie Dopper of Spindale spent the week end with Mrs. Boyce Owen.

Oscar Owen is in a blimp school at Lakehurst, N. J., where he will undergo blimp training for convoy duty.

Mrs. Violet Small has received her papers to report at Pearl Harbor where her husband is stationed. Mrs. Small is a trained nurse and will take up duties there.

Miss Dorothy Sanders gave a delightful "Victory" party recently. The young people of this section turned out for the affair and had an enjoyable time. No refreshments were served.

Friends of Mrs. Catey Guyton will regret to learn she had to return to the Sanatorium for tuberculosis treatment again, after an attack of influenza.

Young Harley Strickland received painful, but not serious injuries when the car he was riding in wrecked Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spring of Columbia, S. C., and their son, Billie, visited Mrs. Alice Owen over the week end.

We welcome to our community Mr. Parker of family, formerly of South Carolina.

Miss Beatrice Wright spent the week end with her parents at Clover, S. C.

Leon Wilson spent the week end with his family at Marion, N. C.

Mr. Parrie Gladden spent the week with his family at Fallston, where he has a very sick little daughter.

We are all in this life - every man, woman and child. But those souls of women will soon have the opportunity to take a more active part for the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps is increasing its strength to 150,000 uniformed women.

FEEL PEPPY! BACKACHE: Get the stinging out of your back by rubbing this ointment on the sore spots. It is a sure cure for backache, rheumatism, and all the aches and pains of the body. It is a sure cure for all the aches and pains of the body. It is a sure cure for all the aches and pains of the body.
