

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: House 271; Office 98 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON.

SUNDAY EVENING GUESTS

Rev and Mrs. J. G. Winkler had as Sunday evening guests, Jack Crook, ministerial student at Duke University...

their chapel prior to the evening service.

Personals

Charles Campbell Jr. has been promoted to Corporal and has been transferred to Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Charles S. Hord of Beaufort, Conn. is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hord.

Messrs. James Roberts and Bob McDaniel were business visitors to Charlotte recently.

Mr. Henry E. Barnes who is stationed at Fort Knox Ky is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. J. D. Simmons spent last week in Mobile, Ala. where she visited her husband.

Mrs. Ernest Payne is leaving tonight for a visit to her husband at Fort Benning, Ga.

Miss Margaret Cornwell is visiting her sisters in Florence, S. C. and Darlington, S. C.

Misses Mary Evelyn Goforth and Nancy Suber spent the week end in Charlotte.

Miss Daisy Payne was carried to Lincolnton Hospital last week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Johnson of Atlanta, Ga. have been visiting relatives in Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Lee Harmon and Miss Virginia Harmon and Ethel Rose visited Mr. and Mrs. Home Harmon in Bessemer City Sunday.

S. C. Heims of Washington, D. C. visited friends in Kings Mountain and relatives in Charlotte and Monroe during the week-end.

Pvt. James J. Alexander son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Alexander has entered training in the Army Air Force at Miami Beach, Fla.

D. F. Hord Jr. former student of Wake Forest College left recently for Atlanta, Ga. where he entered Atlanta Southern Dental College.

Eddie Campbell went to Raleigh Wednesday to take his final examination for entrance into the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Hugh Hoke and baby son Chas. Cline of Lincolnton have been visiting a few days with relatives in Kings Mountain.

James Aubrey Clay of Monroe, La. was called home last week because of the death of his father, W. M. Clay, whose funeral was held last Saturday at Spindale, N. C.

Pvt. Gene Wright of the U. S. Army Air Corps stationed at Buckley, Colo., has been spending a 15 day furlough at his home in Kings Mountain.

Epl. Karl Sawyer who has been visiting friends and relatives here and at Boone, will leave tonight for Gravelly Point, D. C. where he has been transferred from Mississippi.

Mrs. J. G. Winkler and Mrs. W. M. Gantt have been attending the annual missionary conference of Western North Carolina Methodists in session at Winston-Salem this week.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mrs. B. M. Ormand and Walter Griffin were week-end guests of Mrs. Griffin's father at Columbus.

Visiting Mrs. L. F. Neal recently were her sister Mrs. Mark Rodwell and a friend, Mrs. Hall, both of Cherryville.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware Moffatt, Jr. and Johnnie Warlick were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick LaGrande in Shelby Sunday evening. Mrs. LaGrande celebrated her birthday anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Kiser of Charlotte who has been visiting relatives in Kings Mountain went to Atlanta last week for a few days stay with her sister, Mrs. Mason Barber. Mrs. Barber is convalescing at her home after undergoing a serious operation.

George Lattimore, Jr. student at Duke University, was a recent visitor at the home of his parents in Kings Mountain and had as his guest, Ed Burnside third, of Charlotte, a former Duke student, who is entering the service of his country.

Miss Vivian Prince, student at an art school in Nashville, Tenn., is convalescing satisfactorily after an operation for mastoiditis she underwent in a Nashville hospital last week. Her sister, Miss Caroline Prince, has been with her for the past ten days.

Miss Ezzelle Smart with the American Red Cross at Camp Stewart, Ga. and Miss Hattie Edwards who is connected with the Thomasville Orphanage were guests of Mrs. George Moss and Mrs. D. F. Hord last week.

Ladd Hamrick, Jr. student of Wake Forest College the Bowman-Gray medical school at Winston-Salem. This school is a unit of Wake Forest College and is connected with the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem.

Miss Elaine Keeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeter has been elected a member of the International Relations Club of the Women's College of Farmington, Conn. She is also recently honored by adding the Dean's list for the first semester which allows special privileges.

Engagement Announced

MISS SARA BESS LEDFORD TO WED JACK ORMAND

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ledford announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Bess of Shelby and the late Mr. Jack Ormand of Kings Mountain and Philadelphia.

Miss Ledford, youngest daughter of Mr. Ledford and the late Mrs. Bess Hord Ledford, is well known in Kings Mountain where she has visited frequently in the home of her late uncle, D. F. Hord.

She received her education at Shelby High School and Mitchell College. At the present time she is employed by the Children's Service Bureau in Charlotte.

Mr. Ormand is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ormand of Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of North Carolina State College at Raleigh and is now a government inspector for the Quartermasters Corps in Philadelphia.

The wedding will take place at the First Baptist Church, Shelby, April 23, at five o'clock. The Rev. B. F. Ormand of Chadbourn, brother of the bridegroom-elect, will perform the ceremony, assisted by Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor of the bride-elect.

No wedding invitations will be issued but friends who are cordially invited to attend.

Our Job is to Save Dollars Buy War Bonds Buy Pay Day

Triple cleaned KOREAN Legumin Seed for Sale at Bridges and Hamrick Hardware and Cleveland Motor Co. This is number one seed by state test F. R. Summers

He Advertised

IS THERE GOLD IN YOUR CELLAR? Yes, and in Your Attic Too! Turn These Things You Don't Want Into Money with a Want Ad

The Catawba County Jersey Club will offer 15 animals, including 11 milking cows, at the annual engagement sale on May 7...

The North Carolina Home Extension Association will hold a convention at the University of North Carolina on April 14-15-16...

Alfalfa hay can be improved by the application of 20 pounds of borax per acre. The increase in carotene and digestibility of hay...

Home economists are being trained in preparing and altering the family budget. This means that the family budget can be adjusted to meet the needs of the family...

Misses Mary Evelyn Goforth and Nancy Suber spent the week end in Charlotte.

Miss Daisy Payne was carried to Lincolnton Hospital last week for treatment.

Triple cleaned KOREAN Legumin Seed for Sale at Bridges and Hamrick Hardware and Cleveland Motor Co. This is number one seed by state test F. R. Summers

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

OVER THE TOP FOR VICTORY UNITED STATES WAR BONDS-STAMPS

Oh, Oh! It's Wrong Way! COAX In Customer War ADVERTISING Backed by Good Service!

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

FRED W. HURRY CALOX 2028

DeBary BEAUTY PREPARATIONS for DRY SKINS Kings Mountain Drug Co. We Fill Any Doctors' Prescription The Retail Store Phones 41 and 61

Imperial Theater KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. PHONE 134 TODAY - THURSDAY -Two Big Hits- "Hi Buddy" "Journey Into Fear" FRIDAY AND SATURDAY "Lone Star Trail" "Hong Kong Nights" MONDAY AND TUESDAY "Happy Serves A Writ"

George Lattimore, Jr. student at Duke University, was a recent visitor at the home of his parents in Kings Mountain and had as his guest, Ed Burnside third, of Charlotte, a former Duke student, who is entering the service of his country.

Miss Vivian Prince, student at an art school in Nashville, Tenn., is convalescing satisfactorily after an operation for mastoiditis she underwent in a Nashville hospital last week. Her sister, Miss Caroline Prince, has been with her for the past ten days.

Miss Ezzelle Smart with the American Red Cross at Camp Stewart, Ga. and Miss Hattie Edwards who is connected with the Thomasville Orphanage were guests of Mrs. George Moss and Mrs. D. F. Hord last week.

For Easter-- Men's Portage Sport Oxfords Perforated $5 if you buy them. $5.50 if we have to sell them. All our male force is in the Armed Service. Myers' Dept. Store DRESS SHOPPE-2nd FLOOR