HONORED AT DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeter were honor guests at a delightful dinner party given by the employees of Keeter's Department Store, at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Goforth on Gold street last Tuesday night.

The home was decorated with Christmas greens and blooming plants. The small tables where guests were seated were lighted with red candles. Christmas favors and place cards gave a festive note to the occasion.

A three-course dinner was served. After dinner Mr. Paul McGinnis of the Men's Clothing Department representing the employees, gave Mr. and Mrs. Keeter a gift, with an appropriate presentation speech. A gay holiday spirit prevailed as gifts were exchanged by those present.

ENTERTAINING STUDY CLUB

Mrs. Byron Keeter delightfully entertained the Study Club and a few invited guests on Tuesday afternoon.

The lovely home was attractively decorated for the Christmas season. A miniature silver Christmas Tree was used in the living room and the two Christmas holly and shrubs gilded were used throughout the house.

Mrs. Paul Mauney, program chairman for the meeting, presented a paper of Mrs. N. F. McGill. Miss Mary Beth Ford and Miss Pauline Mauney, who played Christmas carols. Mrs. W. T. Weir read Dickens' Christmas Carols, which was enjoyed by all present.

Delightful refreshments were served by Miss Dolina Keeter, Mrs. Grady Patterson and Miss Pauline Mauney.

Mrs. Carl Davidson, club president, presided at the meeting.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER PARTY

Mrs. George Moss' Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian Church entertained at a progressive dinner party Tuesday evening. The guests met first at Miss J. A. Webb's for fruit cocktail and open faced sandwiches, next going to Miss Lenora Plunk's for the dinner course, a delicious chicken pie. At Miss Peggy Arthur's, the guests had their dessert course of ice box cake topped with whipped cream. Each guest received a present from the Christmas Tree.

At Mrs. Moss' home-dent tase was served and the party concluded at Miss Dorcy Irwin's with games. Guests were: Jean Webb, Betty Lynch, Lenora Plunk, Dorcy Irwin, Evelyn Roberts, Polly Arthur, Pauline Mauney, Lou Ann Herndon, Mildred Mae Goforth.

AMERICAN HOME DEPT. HAS WHITE CHRISTMAS

Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Davis, the American Home Department packed a huge Christmas box for the soldiers at Camp Sutton Hospital. Useful gifts beautifully wrapped half filled Mrs. Davis' living room. Boxes of good books, ash trays, etc. were packed by Mesdames W. W. Tolleson, E. W. Tolleson, Mrs. W. W. Tolleson, J. E. Davis, E. L. Campbell, Aubrey Mauney and Mrs. Tom Fulton. Mr. while other members unable to attend sent their gifts to be placed in the box. Mrs. Davis served hot tea and date bars to the guests.

CELEBRATE 47th ANNIVERSARY

In commemoration of their forty seventh wedding anniversary the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mauney dined at the Keeter Dining Rooms in Charlotte Wednesday evening. Present were all members with their families except Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lohr and son Lawrence, of Raleigh.

Special honor was paid to the late member Rev. Clifford P. Fisher, Jr., of Concord who during the summer was married to the youngest daughter, Martha Lou.

Present as guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Fisher of Kannapolis, parents of the Rev. Fisher and Mr. Wolf, father of Mrs. H. B. Wolf of Charlotte.

Present were following members: family, Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Fisher of Concord, Capt. and Mrs. Jacob P. Mauney and son, Jacob, of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Barnes and son, Luther, of Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and child, Peggy; Anne and Gene Ashy of Kings Mountain; and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. There'll always be a Christmas

Barbarians from across the seas would, if they could, banish Christmas forever from the earth. But there'll always be a Christmas! May the Christmas season of 1943 find you in the midst of a good old-fashioned Yule celebration. Merry Christmas from all of us to all of you.
