

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE
Dear Mr. Lynch:
Just a few lines from the living holder. I can say nothing because I have been in two camps in Georgia,

By the way, you can tell the hun-ders of K. M. that I am shooting 20 gauge shot gun shells a day at ducks and traps. This is one way to use shells. We use two boxes a day to practice with. Besides that, we shoot a .22 machine gun. We have targets with BB guns in them. I am in the Sperry Hall of a B 24 but I am going to school tonight to study the consolidated Target.

in its cover with the same case as a tube being wrapped in crumpled clothes. Order some more given; then right face and I saw 2,000 men leave the camp singing the Air Corps song.
Where else in this war-torn world do you see this besides the Land of The Free and the Home of the Brave?
You will have to admit, there is no ceremony like "Retreat," there is no place like the United States.
B. G. Myers.

the children desert. Boy, what a desert. About 120 in the shade. For 10 months I was in training there.
It took about 20 pounds of fat. If you don't think it is hot out there around Ft. Bragg in August just go out there for a vacation some time. After going through all that punishment for over 10 months, I go and get myself smashed up on mashugs. One kid got killed. One would be surprised just how many got killed and hurt just playing war out there as that great desert. Well, that is why I am in the Postal Unit in England. I could have got out of the Army at the time. But I don't think I would have been satisfied.
So I am in England now trying to get the boys their letters and packages. I haven't seen any action yet, but when the time comes, I guess I will be right there with the boys.
After all we can't let a little thing like bullets stop the boys from getting their mail from their loved ones. And if that isn't what a soldier looks forward to more than any thing else in the Army, just ask one of them.

Under and by virtue of the authority vested in the undersigned by a Judgment of the Superior Court in the special proceeding entitled, "Mrs.

ceased, Plaintiff, vs. Nell Short and Jr. M. Reynolds; Dan C. Reynolds; nor children; and J. R. Davis, special attorney for Jack J. Reynolds, defendant," I, as Commissioner of the Court, will sell to the highest bidder land County, in Kings Mountain,

RETTYRAT
Today I saw the most beautiful ceremony I have ever seen. I saw "Retreat." I saw 2,000 men march up to Post Headquarters in front of the Stars and Stripes and stand at attention. They were given Parade rest until Taps was then I heard 2,000 men snap to attention and the Post Band started playing "The Star Spangled Banner." The flag came down slowly and when down, pinned

Dear Mr. Lynch:
Just a short note to my folks and that I had a very pleasant surprise today when I received my first issue of the Herald in 7 months. Although it was Jan. 12 issue it was news from home and I enjoyed it very much. You may not have my correct mailing address so please check it for me. I have missed my Herald very much and hope now that they will be coming soon. It is always good to know the news from The Best City in the State.

England is pretty nice now, but was real rough when I landed. And Boy, do those English girls get for the Yanks. They will stand on the street in the black-out, chew American gum and sing "Pistol Packin' Mama" all night if you will stay with them. Oh yes, that reminds me I have got to send home for more gum. Well, I am having it pretty good now. They moved my outfit out to private homes. I am staying with a very nice old couple. I have a nice room and what a soft bed! with hosest-to-goodness starched sheets. I could not sleep the first night. The bed was too soft. This isn't the my Mr. Jones. I am now sleeping in the bed I used to dream about out in that California desert in those ditch trenches. Oh yes, I also forgot not before I sailed from Camp Kilmer, N. J., I was sitting in our Orderly Room and in walks a girl from Kings Mountain. She was in the W.A.S. Small world. Oh yes, I would like to have Mr. H. V. Bell to taste some of this English beer. It will make you cry on your land-lady's shoulder. I really would like to encourage the people of Kings Mountain write more to their folks in the Service. Because it really means plenty to them. I would also like to hear from anyone in K. M. I would like to say hello to all the boys in the service from home, more so to those that are in action. More power to them.

Dear Mr. Lynch:
I guess you will be surprised to hear from me after two years from the best town in the state. So I thought I would write and let you and the people of Kings Mountain know that I am still doing my bit for Uncle Sam.

I also would like to say that the parents of Kings Mountain that have lost their sons in action or training have my deepest sympathy. Guess I had better close this miss, because I know the readers of the Herald will get bored stiff. Here's hoping to see every one soon. Sincerely,

What a break for Jack. His first day in the Army and he caught K. P.
By the way, I remember that big potato self-pickers in Bragg. I remember I told some of the boys that this Army wasn't going to be a bad after all. But that is the first and last self-picker I have seen.

Well, before I go on with my letter I would like to tell something of my life in the Army from the start.
I only stayed in Fort Bragg three weeks then I was sent to Camp Chafee, Ark. There the 6th Armed Division was formed. I was put with it with the 25th Engineers. Boy, what a rugged outfit. It was made up with boys mostly from Ark., Tenn and good old N. C. I went through my basic. Then I was shipped out on

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh What our fighting men dream of Bob Newcomb was reading me a letter the other day—from his son in the Marines. Dick New-comb's somewhere in the South Pacific, thousands of miles from home, yet he writes to ask:
"Tell me, Dad, do they still pitch horseshoes back of Ray's?
Is Johnny keeping my tools in shape? Are the trout still biting in Edward's Creek?" Makes you realize what the man over there are thinking about. Sure, they're fighting for Democracy and Freedom and a Better World Tomorrow.

A BANK FARM
HERE are a few of the ways in which a bank and a farm resemble each other: 1 - They are both business enterprises, each to the credit of the "American Way." 2 - Both require initiative, planning and hard work to achieve success.
3 - Both pay taxes and contribute to local growth and progress.
4 - Both have deep financial roots, the success of each is dependent on the other and the prosperity of both is vital to the entire community.
We feel a close bond of friendship and mutual interest with the farms in this area. If we can help you in any way, let us know.
