LIVE TODAY
"Left the boat, while on the road,
From some sad hardened soul,
Look around till some one you've found.
There are many on life's scroll."

"Make today a day to stay
Some one's weighty sorrow,
A shining star to yonder star
The portals of tomorrow."

CHARACTER
The crown and glory of life is character. It is the subject possession of a man, constituting a grand in itself, and as estate in the general good will, dignifying every station and exalting every position in society. It exercises a greater power than wealth, and secures all the honor without pretensions of fame. It carries with it an influence which always tells; for it is the result of proud honor, nobility and conscientious qualities which perhaps, more than any other command the general confidence and respect of mankind.—Selected.

THE END OF THE ROAD
The U. S. News, after analyzing the effect of current tax laws on business, concludes that "neither individuals nor corporations can be expected to risk money, increase production and provide jobs until tax rates are lowered. The rewards, in general, are too small for the chances to be taken." It adds, however, that "any plan to reduce taxes bumps up against the hard fact that the Treasury must have revenue—and vast amounts of it—to pay interest on the national debt, to care for veterans, to maintain an army and navy, and, finally, to operate the regular government departments."

For years the trend has been higher and higher taxes against production. The war has hastened the trend until at the end of the road has been reached. It is useless to try for higher taxes against industry. The money isn't there. From now on the bills of the Federal government will be paid by a majority of the people instead of a minority. And that goes for the debt too. Whenever a politician announces that the government is going to do this or that for the people, he really means that government is going to tax the people to do it. The government it not Santa Claus. It is merely the tax collector, and the people are beginning to realize it.

WHAT IS AMERICAN INDUSTRY?
Following the first bomb attack by the huge new Superfortresses, General Arnold declared: "The use of the B-29 Superfortresses in combat brings equality to airforces' plan made years in advance for truly global aerial warfare. It proves that our planes and engines, coupled with the capacity of American industry, are an unbeatable combination."

What is "American industry"? Do Superfortresses pour out of super factories at the direction of a few officials in Washington with super brains? No! The Superfortresses are magnificent manifestations of the imagination and productive genius of free men—men whose work is an endless series of miracles. Thus the Model T was yesterday's miracle, just as the Superfortress is today's miracle, while tomorrow's miracles are but dreams locked in the minds of unknown individuals.

This is American industry, free industry.

NEWS AND TALKS

Haywood E. Lynch

Here's that all lady column I promised you last week.

First I want to tell you that I caught Eddie May right in the act of peeping into her gas tank to see if her Acropex was doing her right. Maybe if she would play up to Nell S. Thomson (another lady) she might get enough gas to get home without having to sniff in her gas tank.

I met Mrs. Beulah Dicks in the Post Office the other day making a letter to her son, U. S. Marine Jimmy Dicks. She told me I should check up on old fact that your son was born to four tail-headed mothers in Kings Mountain on the same day. I can't remember but three of the ones, Tony Carpenter, Sr., Marcell Philcox, and her son. If I could have found time to get the facts, this would have made an excellent item for this All-Lady Column. By the way all four of the sons are now in some branch of the Armed services.

Most people like to see their names in the paper, all of them will not admit it but most of them do anyway. (I do myself.) But occasionally you will find a person who really objects to seeing their name in print. One of them is Martha Frances McGill, the official "Sun-Lady" of Koster's Ready-to-Wear Department. She vows and declares that she does not like to see her name in the paper, and Martha Frances being a good A. S. P. I know she is telling the truth.

Seen On My S. couds: Mary Frances Nord enroute home to her car. Grace Fagg coming out of the hardware store. Mrs. Adeline A. Hamrick dressing a model in Bell's Eva Flook making change in the bank. Naomi Adams very busy at the Draft Board. Mrs. Mary Go-forth interviewing an employee in her office at the City Hall. Evelyn Hensbight drinking a coffee. Mrs. Audrey Mummy riding a bicycle. Mrs. Ruth Gamble rushing into the City Hall. Mrs. E. E. Matthews with a pretty count of ten after her trip to the beach. Mrs. S. A. Deane collecting water and light bills. Joe Falls buying a dress. Carl Mummy shopping in the drug. Mrs. A. E. Petterson bringing her society news to the Herald Office. Mrs. W. A. Frederick going to the Post Office. Mrs. J. G. Durrant standing on a counter in the Auto Store. Ann Heider driving to town. Fergie Flook with her two sons down the street. Leta Beattie crossing the street. Faye Mon, leaving home going to work. Mrs. Ted Gamble in town for the week-end. Mrs. O. O. Walker driving her car. Doty Patrick getting refreshed at the soda fountain.

I have had quite a bit to say in this column about the business of Kings Mountain, but never have I had to record that one fell off of a horse. Especially I have to inform you that a lady rider, Mrs. Audrey Mummy fell from her grand old steed the other day. However, I am glad to report that no serious damage was done to either rider or horse. Speaking of lady riders, May Mummy (Mrs.) likes to ride a horse, she loves to ride and ride well. Virginia Logan, the All-Lady Column would be complete without a mention of Mrs. Fannie Black, the friendly lady member of the Post Office staff who is our lady on the job selling money orders. She does her job efficiently and quietly in a friendly manner.

Business Employment
Brazil's wartime industrial expansion is evident in official statistics, showing 10,000 factories and work-shops operating at the end of 1942 compared with 61,000 at the end of 1941. In the same period, industrial workers increased to 220,000 from 125,000 at the close of 1941. Despite this development of industry, the overwhelming proportion of Brazilian employment remains in agriculture, stock breeding and rural industries. Employment in these lines at the end of 1942 totaled 2,200,000, nearly nine times the total employed in manufacturing industries.

THE SPIES
Hi Guys and gals—
Well, we see Marion is back—and for good. She didn't waste any time in hooking a man Saturday night—how about that David H.??

We wonder what's going on between Peggy and Henry? Couldn't he be Jackie now. He dated her twice last week—but then again he dated Tootsie!! Hope you and Charles have a good time at the beach, Henry!!
Speaking of Toots, we hear she got a call from Mv and only Sunday. Could this be true—love? (We wonder?)
By the way, have you noticed that dummy look in Avie's eyes lately? Could it be because her old sweetheart is back in town? Glad to see you E. Campbell!!

We see Eddie is up and about these days. Glad to see ya' well again. Sure we can't tell whether Dutch and Jimmy are still in love or not! Both of them seem to have had interest. We don't see ya' around anymore.
We hear that Eddie S. has finally tall fallen—not in a puddle, but in the deep end of love!! Could she live on Mountain at Eddie?

It seems Sam C. couldn't take his eyes off Beulah while she sat in the chair Sunday night. Then when you had your very collected, Sam! Speaking of the chair — we certainly enjoyed J. T.'s tense. Maybe we have an artist in our midst. We haven't seen much of Dickie and still being what's come over these two love birds?

Another heart was broken Saturday night when David H. dated Marion. Why heart? — why Jane Webb's of course!!
Tooty seems to have cleaned away. Hope you have a good time in Asheville, Tooty!!
Why don't you boys—namely, Gene M., Houston, etc., all WITH your girls—church instead of behind them?
We wonder why Eddie S., Mack Eddie C., Sam C., Mildred, Knub, Fride, and Stacie went to Tootsie's after church Sunday night. Could it have been because Toots, Jennie, Beulah, Marion, Avis and Jackie were there? Nice crowd!! But why did Mack, Knub and Fride leave? We saw them later with Mary Evelyn, Felle, and Fay!! Um!
Houston doesn't seem to be chasing anyone now. Come on lad, get in the chair with the rest of us!!
Florence Rhon had a party Thursday night. Happy Birthday, Flo! By the way, who were the two couples you had with you from Cherryville, Florence? Not bad!!
Keep out of sight, especially at night—
For when you see the wolf howl we are on the prowl!
(Some you've been taking our advice—we can't find ya'!)

Britain's famed Lawrence of Arabia was rejected for front line service in World War I because of his slim and short stature.
Stores and taverns in colonial Virginia usually had a special war-horse as a till for the tobacco money then in vogue.
