A Message To Parents Of Those In Service
We receive many letters from those in service stating that The Herald is like a letter from home to them. Of course if your boy or girl is receiving The Herald, you would like to make sure that they didn't miss a single copy of the paper. The Post Office Department requires that all such subscriptions be cancelled shortly after expiration. Of course we sent expiration notices to all subscribers, but many times by the time we receive renewals from those overseas several copies have been missed.
We would like to suggest that you check the expiration date of your boy or girl's subscription and renew these subscriptions before expiration. We know they will appreciate the uninterrupted service. We will gladly help you in checking these subscriptions. Come in today, make sure your boy or girl in service doesn't miss their letter from home.
