A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. Guests were members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests. The lovely three-tiered wedding cake was decorated in green and white. The top tier was a fruit cake to be used on their first wedding anniversary. Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Murray Pruette, and Mrs. Jesse Westmoreland.

Check Flasher Sought
After Monday Haul Here

Kings Mountain police are seeking to find a man, using the name of William N. Beck who gave Garland's Credit Jewelers worthless check for $85 Monday, after the man had purchased a watch.

Chief of Police W. C. Timmons said the man presented a check made out to William N. Beck and that the man endorsed it. He said that examination of the names indicated a definite forgery and a telephone call to the bank on which the check was drawn revealed no account.

Warrant has been issued by local policemen for the arrest of Beck who was traveling in a Model A Ford.

Miss Maud Williams, member of the Winston-Salem school faculty, arrived in Kings Mountain Sunday to spend the Yuletide holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Williams.

Wise Men Came
From the East

Church tradition, presumably considering the Biblical mention of three specific gifts as presented to the infant Jesus by the Wise Men, has identified the Magi as Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar.

There could have been more than three; legend reports that there were 12 Wise Men and that their journey to Bethlehem had been anticipated for generations.

Twelve learned men who lived in a Far Eastern land appointed themselves to watch for the star of beauty which they believed would announce the birth of the Saviour. Each year, after the crops were harvested, the patriarchs ascended to a mountain plateau to pray and praise God in silence for three days while they watched for the star.

This went on for generations when one of the patriarchs died, his son or kinsman would take his place.

Finally the star appeared, descending upon the mountain and having within itself the form of a child beneath the similitude of a cross.

The Sign spoke to them and commanded them to go to Judea. The journey to Bethlehem is said to have necessitated two years of pressing travel and, though in their haste, they provided no food for themselves, neither food nor drink failed in their vessels.
