Misses Margie and Margaret Parrish, the charming young twins of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Parrish celebrated their 17th birthday Saturday. They were entertained at their home by a number of their young friends and received many lovely gifts.

I met Harvey Hambricht up at the bank. He said he wished they had a Fairview reporter. You remember I wrote the Fairview News when I lived out there. They treated me like I was a gentleman. I am Mr. Hambricht says the first thing he reads is the Nebo News. I like those good people.

Henry Wallace let Truman fix his clock. Truman may get his rep up yet. Mr. Bill Ross from East End and Mrs. Loyd Self from Cherryville visited your reporter Sunday. (By request)

Trailer wrecked veteran now in Chapel Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Austin, who lost their trailer home in a wreck near Columbia, S. C., have had it rebuilt by Elmer Lumber Co. at cost of around $500. They received a Student's loan to pay for the repairs. Chapel Hill, where Sergeant Austin entered college. "A wif you can stand to read my scattering scribbling scholl it might keep you out of some other meanness I am not trying to reform folks that are better than I am. If folks don't like me, I don't like some other folks. Course you like me and I like you. So you see there's nothing they can do about it.

What you going to do when the meat gives out. Its done give out. Folks standing on the corner with their lips stuck out.

I hope there will be a good rabbit crop. Rats are a good substitute and not as nasty as a hog. Hogs are the nastiest best meat. I can smell ham frying in the frying pan, but when I look at isn't in there. Jews don't eat hog meat. They've got better sense and money. They don't fool their time away fooling with hogs.

There are two kinds of professionals — honest and crooked men, Jews.

Preacher: Brother Johnson has been trying to see you for a week. When may I make an appointment? Make it with my wife, Sir. I've done done that and we had a grand time. But I'd still like to see you.

A sign I saw over a bank while passing thru a southern city would have startled our grandpas and grand mas but goes unnoticed in this age when everything is taxed. The sign read exhorting the citizens to save, it ends up, "remember, part of all your earnings belong to us.

The cheapest place in town to trade is where you can buy it for less. I have no special place to trade. It's a fact, if one buys everything from one merchant he gets to thinking you belong to his store, so I just shop around. I might find some meat don't ever get too friendly with your merchant — especially of she's a woman.

William Lyon McKenzie, the King of Canada is a great man. Sunday evenings finds him at St. Andrews Presbyterian church in Ottawa, Canada. Morning prayers are his habit at home or traveling. He reads one Bible chapter a day. He is past seventy hale and hearty. He and Franklin D. were the best of friends. Canada is our neighbor, is also our good customer. Before the war Canada bought over half of U. S. books and printed matter. Sold abroad a third of all our petroleum products, vast amounts of our coal and our farm products. Canada is now the world's largest producer of nickel, asbestos, radium and newsprint. Canada is second in gold third in copper, lead and zinc and production of cargo ships second only to U. S.

Well, friends, today is tomorrow we worried about yesterday, let's not worry any more about tomorrow. We only have the promise of today. Tomorrow belongs to destiny.

Let me wish every one of you a prosperous week end and say your prayers and don't talk about your neighbors. They might be doing the best they know. Once again I thank you.
