Christian Service Circle Meets

Circle Number 3 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Hunter Allen on Monday night with Mrs. W. L. Wright acting as co-hostess. Beautiful fall flowers decorated the meeting rooms where Mrs. C. A. Goforth, the leader, presided. Mrs. Jay Patterson was in charge of the devotional and the Bible study. After the business session, the hostess served delicious refreshments. Nineteen members attended the meeting and Mrs. Clarence Jolly was a visitor.

Marshew Plays Bridge

The Marshew club met Tuesday night at the home of Miss Naomi Edens and spent an enjoyable evening playing bridge. The high scorer for the evening was Mrs. Helen Ramsey and Miss Martha McClain tallied low. Mrs. Frances Heddon won the floating prize. At the conclusion of the play, the hostess served appetizing pleasing refreshments.

Senior Woman's Club Meets

Last Friday the Senior Woman's club held its first meeting of the season, with Mrs. E. A. Shenk, the president, presiding. There was a good attendance and many plans for the coming months were discussed. The club was very glad to welcome Mrs. Paul Mauney as a new member. Members of the library committee are Mrs. W. K. Mauney, chairman, Mrs. C. E. Neisler, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mrs. W. T. Weir, Mrs. A. H. Patterson.

In connection with the library, Mrs. E. A. Shenk, president, said this week that the club was deeply appreciative of a box of reference books received recently from the City of Greensboro library. Ambition of the group has been to set up a complete reference library.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and Mrs. Gra dy Patterson gave interesting reports from the district meeting. The club as a whole expressed its appreciation of the Mauney Memorial Library. The project is of special interest to the club since the members have worked for its betterment since its beginning and has a committee which attends to choosing and purchasing suitable books.

Plans were completed for the Floral fair which will be held later this month. Mrs. J. K. Willis, who is second vice-president, will be the general chairman of the fair this year, which promises to be one of the seasons outstanding events. The next meeting will be arranged by the Art department under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Griffin and all members are urged to attend.

Lula Herndon Circle Visits County Home

On Monday afternoon the Lula Herndon circle of the First Baptist church met at the church for a short business session and then there went to the county home where they gave a program for the aged people who reside there.

Mrs. W. M. Mowbray had charge of the program which was enjoyed immensely by everyone present. Mrs. Frank Sisk gave the devotional and Rev. L. C. Pinnix led the song service after which Mrs. Billy Houser read a very interesting story.

Following the program, each lady living in the home was given a pretty apron as a gift from the circle members. After the gifts were presented, all the inmates were served cookies and apples.

Mrs. Still Hostess To Tuesday Club

Mrs. Gertrude Still was hostess this week to the Tuesday club at her home on Piedmont avenue. There were two tables of bridge to play, with Mrs. Ladd Hamrick as guest and Mr. Lovey arranged for fall flowers used throughout the house. After the game, the hostess served a delectable salad course.

Juniors Entertain New Teachers

The Junior Woman's Club honored the new teachers of the city schools and other special guests on Monday night at an informal buffet supper at the club house. The hall and lounge were beautifully decorated with the Halloween motif being angmented with lovely fall flowers.

On arrival, the guests were presented a boutonniere and were introduced to the club members by Mrs. Lynwood Parton.

After supper, the club members and guests enjoyed a very enjoyable social period and were entertained by Miss Ann James, who played several selections on the piano.

Special guests other than the new teachers were: Mrs. E. A. Shenk, president of the Senior Woman's club, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Senior sponsor for the Juniors, Mrs. Herbert Whitely, president of the Bessemer City Junior club, and Mrs. Elmo Bridges, Secretary of District No. 4.

Mrs. Carl Mayes Entertains At Bridge

Mrs. Carl Mayes entertained at a social bridge Friday afternoon at her home on Gaston street. The tables were centered with nosegays of small fall flowers. Fall flowers were also used throughout the house. Heavenly hash and fruit cake was served.

Bridge was played at three tables, with scores going to Mrs. Paul Neisler. Second high was awarded to Mrs. Edna Denton and Mrs. George Houser won both the low prize and lucky score prize.

Social Club Entertained

The Social club members were entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. R. L. Mauney. The rooms, in which three tables of Rook were in play, were lovely with an array of ferns, roses, and other fall flowers.
