R. S. Thornburgs Celebrated 50th Wedding Anniversary Christmas Day

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thornburg celebrated on Christmas day the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding with an informal reception at their home. Children, grandchildren, and other relatives called between three and five o'clock to offer their congratulations.

A program of music was given in the living room by two granddaughters, Mrs. M. J. Bell, jr., sang "Because," Mrs. W. J. Lewis sang "I Love You Truly." They were accompanied at the organ by Miss Mitchell Williams, niece of Mrs. Thornburg. After the music the guests were invited into the dining room. A white linen cloth covered the table, which was graced at one end by the tiered golden wedding cake and at the other end was a crystal punch bowl. In the center of the table a bowl of poinsettias flanked by crystal candelabras holding white tapers. A small side table held the silver coffee service also decorated with silver candelabras and tapers.

Mrs. Thornburg cut the first piece of cake after which a fruit punch course was served with cake, mints, nuts, potato chips and coffee. Those assisting in serving were: Mrs. Monroe J. Bell, Sr., Mrs. George Einhart, Mrs. Odell Steller, Mrs. W. J. Lewis.

Mrs. Fred Thornburg presided at the punch bowl while Mrs. Ted Thornburg and Mrs. Otha Thornburg served the coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg's youngest son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thornburg celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary along with their parents.

Mrs. Thornburg wore a black crepe dress, white lace at the neck and a lavender orchid shoulder bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg have seven children, Mrs. Monroe J. Bell, Mrs. Odell Steele and Ted Thornburg of Charlotte; Wray, Floyd and Fred Thornburg of Kings Mountain; Otha Thornburg of Rock Hill, S. C.; fourteen grandchildren: Mrs. George Einhart, Judy Thornburg, Bobby Dell, Edwardeen and Ted Steele of Charlotte; Modene, Helen, Newell, Dewon, Beeky Sue and Brenda Thornburg of Kings Mountain; M. J. Bell, jr., of Furman University, Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. W. J. Lewis of Thomasville, Ga.; and three great-grandchildren, Gail and Carol Einhart of Charlotte; and an infant son of Modene Thornburg of Kings Mountain.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wray Williams and daughters, Maud, Mitchell, Helen and husband,

Miss Myers Honors Courtesy Extended Miss Dorothy Saunders Mrs. F. Ramseur

Paying a beautiful compliment to Miss Dorothy Saunders, her roommate at Salem Academy, Miss Eleanor Myers was a most gracious hostess at a luncheon, given at the Country Club on New Year's day.

The private dining room of the Club was unusually attractive, with the New Year motif being effectively carried out.

The dining table was centered with a silver bowl of red and white carnations, flanked on either side with lighted red tapers in silver holders. Attached to each place card was a silver leaf. The guests were reminded that since it was New Year's Day, each one should turn over a new leaf. When the place card leaf was turned, a resolution, appropriately selected for each guest was found written on it.

A tempting four-course luncheon was served to the following: (in honor of, Miss Dorothy Saunders, Miss Libby Wilson of Gastonia, Misses Pat Neisler, Shirley Arthur, Pauline Mauney, Betty Falls, Peggy Mauney, Jean Cash, Iris Patterson, Marjorie Lou Dickey, and the hostess, Miss Myers.

As a special courtesy to her mother, Mrs. Fleming Ramseur, her house guest, Mrs. Paul Mauney was hostess at a lovely rook party at her home Wednesday afternoon, December 22.

Christmas decorations were in evidence throughout the home.

After several progressions, scores were tallied, Mrs. J. H. Bryan was presented a gift for high score.

A refreshment plate of ambrosia fruit cake and coffee was served.

Those playing were: Mesdames Fleming Ramseur, W. T. Weir, Ellerbee, C. E. Neisler, M. L. Plonk, H. T. Fulton, Sr., L. C. Parsons, W. S. Dillon, P. D. Patrick, D. C. Mauney, Arthur Hay, Mrs. J. H. Bryan of Palaka, Fla., J. V. Patterson and S. A. Robinson of Gastonia.

Mrs. C. D. Blanton Fetes Fortnighters

Friday afternoon, December 31, Mrs. Don Blanton was charming hostess to members of the Fortnighters Club.

The home was attractively decorated with poinsettias, red berries, and greenery.

After several progressions Mrs. Tolly Shuford was presented a gift for high score.

A delicious salad carrying out the Christmas motif was served.

Ace Of Clubs Meet With Mrs. W. R. Craig

On Thursday afternoon December 30, Mrs. W. R. Craig was gracious hostess to members of the Ace of Clubs.
