

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. P. D. HERNDON, Editor

PHONE 167

Interesting Meeting
WOW Officers Club

The officers club of the W. O. W. met Saturday February 26th. Miss Blanch Aiken of Charlotte, National Director and state overseer, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Genell Pittman, president of Kings Mountain Grove 146 gave the address of welcome. The response was given by the chaplain of the Shelby Grove. Mrs. Lou V. Morehead, district manager read the minutes of the last meeting. Officers for the year were elected. The next meeting will be held in Shelby sometime in June.

A large crowd from the different groves in the district attended this meeting.

Jonquils, ivy and Japanese tulips were used to decorate the hall. During the social hour refreshments were served.

Prizes were given Mrs. Pittman and Mrs. Rob Erney for securing the most new members since last meeting.

Birthday Dinner
Honors Jack Clark

Paying a charming compliment to her husband Jack Clark, who was celebrating his birthday Sunday, March 6, Mrs. Clark served a delicious three-course dinner to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell and son, Bill, of Grover, Mr. and Mrs. James Bell.

Lovely vases of spring flowers were used as decorations.

J. B. Simpson's Fete
Bid And Bye Club

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson most delightfully entertained members of the Bid and Bye Club on Saturday night. Tables were appointed for refreshments on the guests arrival and a very tempting dessert course was served.

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Sr., and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. were invited to play with the club members.

High score prize was presented Mrs. George Houser, second high went to J. B. Simpson.

Mixed spring flowers were used in the living room.

Gastonia Bridge Club
With Mrs. S. O. Davis

Delightful in appointment was the dessert-bridge given Wednesday night when Mrs. Sam Davis entertained members of her bridge club from Gastonia.

Grouped amid a setting of beautifully arranged spring flowers three tables were in play. Invited to play other than club members, Mrs. Allen Julien, of Larchmont, N. Y., house guest of Mrs. Paul Neisler, Mrs. H. R. Neisler, Mrs. H. S. Blackmer, Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Neisler.

When scores were tallied Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., was high, Mrs. Julien was also remembered with a gift.

Little Susan Davis
Honored On Birthday

Mrs. Sam Davis entertained the pupils of the Jack and Jill Kindergarten last Friday morning at the Kindergarten on Waco Road. The party was given in honor of her little daughter, Susan, who was celebrating her fifth birthday anniversary.

After a short play period Mrs. Davis brought in the beautifully decorated birthday cake with five lighted candles. The children sang "Happy Birthday" to Susan after which she made a wish and blew out her candles.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. M. C. Poston served each child an attractive Easter plate of ice cream, cake, orange juice and bubble gum.

Susan opened her many beautiful gifts after which she gave each child a favor. For the girls she had jump ropes and for the boys, yo-yos.

The children who enjoyed the party were: Becky Bowers, Jimmie Cranford, Jane Hambricht, Charlotte Harril, Paula Hehn, Yvonne Hehn, Beth Houser, Brenda Gail Hamrick, Edith Jane Kincaid, Patricia Pennington, Lynda Parton, Carolyn Pinnix, Joyce Plonk, Billy Rampeur, James Robbs, Lee Settlemyre, Von Settlemyre, Ann Settlemyre, Linda Wilson, Stevie White and Marlene Weir.

Duplicate Bridge
With Mrs. G. B. Riley

Mrs. Gordon Riley entertained members of the Duplicate Bridge Club and four invited guests with a dessert bridge Monday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a variety of spring flowers.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Jacob Cooper, Mrs. Garland Still, Mrs. Paul Neisler, Mrs. Jack Day, and Mrs. H. E. Lynch.

Mrs. James Simpson and Mrs. Fred Plonk won high score prize.

MYF Have Program
On Right Thinking

Seniors of the Methodist Youth Fellowship met Sunday evening for a program on "How Can I Know What Is Right in My Thinking?" led by Walter Griffin and Jo Ann Hayes. Next Sunday evening, the topic will be "How Can I Know What Is Right in My Fun?" The program is being planned by the same leaders.

72nd. Birthday Noted
By Mrs. E. E. Beam

Mrs. E. E. Beam of Bessemer City was the inspiration of a lovely dinner party March 13th when her son, B. F. Beam and Mrs. Beam, entertained in honor of her 72nd birthday anniversary.

The center of attraction on the dining table was the large pink and white birthday cake flanked on either side with pink candles in crystal holders.

A perfectly appointed four course dinner was served.

The home was decorated with mixed spring flowers.

Miss Andrews Gives
Wedding Plans

Plans have been completed and are announced for the wedding of Miss Margaret Ruth Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Victor Andrews of Charlotte, and Mr. Wolbert DeHann, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. DeHann of Kalamazoo, Mich.

The wedding will take place March 26 at 8 o'clock in the evening in Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian church, Charlotte.

Dr. Charles G. McClure will officiate, and a program of wedding music will be presented by Mrs. David Wilson and Miss Alice Ridenhour.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, Lawrence DeHann of Kalamazoo, Mich., brother of the bridegroom, will be best man.

Miss Nell Riddle, cousin of the bride-elect, will be maid of honor.

Other attendants will be Miss Elinor Montgomery of Rock Hill, S.

C. Miss Jane Wolfe and Miss Marceline Weathers of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, cousin of the bride-elect.

Billy Smith of Gastonia will carry the ring and Kitty Clark will be flower girl. Ushers will be Jim Andrews, brother of the bride-elect, Garrett DeHann, brother of the bridegroom-elect, and W. J. Clark.

Friday night, March 25th, after the rehearsal Mrs. J. J. Dorrian will entertain at her home on Louise avenue, Charlotte.

There will be a reception after the ceremony given by the bride's parents at their home in Central avenue.

Miss Andrews is a member of the Kings Mountain school faculty.

Lutheran Ladies To Study Mission Book

Monday night, March 21, at 6:30 p. m. the ladies of the Lutheran church will have a covered dish supper then study their home mission

Twin Table Bridge
With Mrs. Goforth

Bridge was played progressively at two tables Friday night when Mrs. I. B. Goforth was hostess to the Twin Table Bridge club. Mrs. M. H. Biser and Mrs. W. E. Blakely were invited to play.

Cherry tarts with ice cream and coffee was served before the progressions started.

The home was made most attractive with bowls of daffodils, narcissus, snow drops, pansies and flower- book, "On Our Own Doorstep," by Frank S. Mead.

Leading in the study will be, Mrs. F. R. Summers, Mrs. J. B. Simpson, Mrs. Hal Plonk, Mrs. Jacob Cooper, Mrs. Garland Still and Mrs. W. H. Stender. Film strips to aid in the study will be shown.

Mrs. Jacob Mauney, leader, urges all ladies to be present for the supper and also for the Mission Study.

ing Judas.

Places were found with spring tallies. When scores were added Mrs. Claud Hambricht was high, Mrs. C. F. Thomasson second high.

Miss Lois Watson
NCEA President

Miss Lois Watson, the fourth grade teacher of Central school will be president of the Kings Mountain unit of the NCEA next year. She will succeed Miss Margaret Goforth, sixth grade teacher of Central.

Slated to serve with Miss Watson are Miss Helen Turner of East school as secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Juanita Warren of high school as vice-president.

These officers, Miss Annie B. Roberts, high school principal Rowell Lane, Supt. B. N. Barnes, expect to attend the state teachers meeting in Asheville, April 14-16.

Myers' Dress Shop Presents A

Clearance

-of-

ALL SPRING
COATS and SUITS
25% OFF

SPECIAL!

ONE GROUP OF

Dresses and Skirts

1-2 PRICE

MYERS' DRESS SHOP

-Second Floor-

The Dependable
Answer to Your BURNING
QUESTION

RED BAR
COAL

(Tax included on all Prices)

No. 1 RED BAR, lump.....	$15.50
No. 1 RED BAR, egg	$15.50
KENTUCKY	$14.50
VIRGINIA COAL	$14.00
STOKER COAL	$14 and $15

Slightly Higher in Less Than Ton Lots

-PROMPT DELIVERY-

YOUR ORDERS APPRECIATED

WEIR'S COAL

Telephone 195-W

IT'S A BLACK BUSINESS BUT WE TREAT YOU
WHITE