Pre-Nuptial Courtesy Shown Miss Griffin

A pre-nuptial courtesy was shown Miss Je'Anne Griffin Thursday night when Mrs. Bill Craig entertained at a buffet dinner.

The dining table was covered with a Madeira cloth centered with white candles in silver holders. The baked ham, tomato aspic, asparagus tips with cheese sauce, hot rolls, celery, olives, pickles, were arranged on the table. On a side table were individual lemon tarts, minis, and coffee.

Card tables covered with Madeira covers were placed in the living room. These also held lighted candles. Around these were placed miniature candy nosegays tied with blue and pink ribbon. The nosegays were later given as favors.

Mrs. Craig was assisted in serving by Miss Carlyle Ware.

Those enjoying the hospitality were Miss Griffin, honoree, her mother, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Miss Marion Arthur, Miss Virginia Summers, Miss Nancy Nickles, and Miss Caroline McDaniel.

Spring flowers in pastel shades were used in the party rooms. The honoree was given a copper ivy bowl.

WMS Of 2nd. Baptist With Mrs. Jim Pearson

The WMS of the Second Baptist church met last Thursday with Mrs. Jim Pearson.

Seventeen members were present. Two new members were welcomed, Mrs. Ben Sanders and Mrs. Dora Austin.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Marie Hamrick. Mrs. Nannie Kitchen read the devotionals. An interesting discussion on "Christ Is The Answer To Racial Problems" was given by several members.

Mrs. Bessie Horne led the closing prayer. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Jake England and Hillard Redmon served a delicious salad plate with coffee.

Brides-Elect Honored With A Tea

One of the lovely parties of the week was the tea given by Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mrs. J. S. Norman at the home of the former on Friday afternoon, complimenting Misses Je'Anne Griffin and Lenora Plonk, brides-elect and Mrs. W. L. Davis' daughter-in-law and house guest, Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Receiving at the front door was Mrs. B. S. Neill. Mrs. J. H. Patterson introduced guests to the receiving line, composed of Mesdames J. S. Norman, J. R. Davis, W. L. Davis, Misses Je'Anne Griffin, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, mother of bride-elect, Miss Lenora Plonk, Mrs. E. C. Brandon, jr., Mrs. Donald Crawford, a recent bride, and Mrs. Packard Elliott of Shelby.

Green and white was the predominant color note used throughout the home.

The mantle in the living room was banked with ivy interspersed with white blossoms and graduated with white candles. White snapdragons were used on the piano. Directing to the dining room were Mrs. J. H. Arthur and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

The dining room table was covered with a handsome Madeira cutwork cloth, centered with a bowl of white snapdragons and carnations flanked with a silver candelabra holding lighted tapers.

At each end of the table was a silver service. Mrs. M. A. Ware and Mrs. W. W. Tolleson poured coffee. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Miss Audrey May, Miss Je'Anne Davis, Miss Margaret Goforth and Miss Sybil Spratt.

Miss Fannie Carpenter and Mrs. John Cheshire directed callers to the den, here Mrs. Vernon Crosby presided over the register.

Mrs. Dan Finger, directed to the sun room and good-byes were said by Mrs. W. M. Gannt and H. C. Mays.

Music was furnished at the piano by Miss Bonnie McIntosh and Miss Lula Mae Teague. Approximately 150 guests called between the hours of four and six o'clock.

Mrs. Caldwell Hostess To Macedonia WMS

WMS of Macedonia Baptist church met last week with Mrs. M. B. Caldwell. Mrs. Jesse Jenkins opened the meeting with prayer. A short business session was held with Mrs. C. B. Bobbitt presiding.

Topic for March - "God Shows No Partiality." Mrs. Caldwell was in charge of the devotional. Special prayer was conducted for Home Missions.

Parts of the program presented were: "Christ The Answer To Racial Tension," Mrs. B. Bobbitt; "Is Race Reason for Tension?" Mrs. Jess Jenkins; "Two Questions We Are Afraid of," Mrs. James W. Bohn; "Christ The Answer," Mrs. Clarence Compton. "Christ In Us Can Solve It All," Mrs. J. E. Dover.

After the program Mrs. Caldwell assisted by Mrs. O. T. Gunnels served tasty refreshments.

Pauline Club Observes 16th Birthday

The members of the Pauline Community Club celebrated their 16th Anniversary with a dinner last Tuesday night at the club house.

In the center of the table was the large birthday cake. Fried chicken, rice, potato salad, slaw, deviled eggs, hot rolls, coffee and the birthday cake were enjoyed by the 21 members there.

Mrs. Jack Hullender gave the devotional. Mrs. Joe Ducker led in prayer. In the absence of the president Mrs. Clyde Blackwell had charge of the business.

Several games were played. Mrs. Charlie Bridges dismissed with prayer.

Miss Jean Webb Gives A Lovely Tea

Miss Je'Anne Griffin and Miss Lenora Plonk, brides-elect, were the inspiration for a beautiful tea given Saturday afternoon by Miss Jean Webb at the Country Club.

Mrs. R. H. Webb, mother of the hostess, welcomed guests at the door introducing them to the receiving line, Miss Webb, Miss Plonk, and Miss Griffin. The receiving line was formed in the rose living room, the mantle was banked with gladioli, greenery and lighted tapers. Elsewhere in the room were azaleas and bowls of mixed flowers.

Misses Marion Arthur and Caroline Morrow received in the reception hall. Yellow narcissus, rose epergne holding bridal flowers were effectively used.

Receiving in the hall between the living room and dining room were Misses Dorcas Carpenter and Bobbie Simons.

Large ferns and spring flowers added to the beauty here.

Callers were invited into the dining room by Mrs. Paul Neisier and Mrs. Hayne Blackmer. The table was covered with a white linen cut-work and embroidered cloth, centered with a silver bowl of dutch iris, snapdragons and baby's breath in shades of yellow, orchid and white, a silver candelabra holding lighted white tapers. At one end of the table Mrs. E. W. Griffin poured coffee from a silver service. At the other end Miss Je'Anne Plonk served bridal ices. Individual cakes with valley lily decorations, mints and nuts in silver compotes completed the table appointments.

On a side table a fan shaped arrangement of the same flowers with silver candle sticks holding white tapers were used. The mantle was banked with flowering white crab-apple. Others assisting in serving in the dining room were Misses Betty Lynch, Louann Herndon, Patty Neisier and Shirley Arthur. Miss Peggy Arthur and Miss Jean Davis said good-byes to the guests from the side door in the living room. Attractive arrangements of peach flowering almond, narcissus and dutch iris were used in this room.

The soft light from the many lighted candles, the unusual array of flowers the girls in their dresses of pastel shades made a lovely setting for the hundred guests who called between 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Brides-Elect Honored With Bridge Party

Miss Betty Lynch delightfully entertained at four tables of bridge and two of rook at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch Saturday night complimenting Miss Lenora Plonk and Miss Je'Anne Griffin, brides-elect. Bright bowls of spring flowers were placed in the living room and den.

In the center of the dining room table was a gorgeous bowl of white glads, narcissus and lacy fern on either end were antique silver candelabras holding white lighted tapers.

The card tables were covered with Madeira tea cloths, in the center of each was a white lighted taper. The places of the honorees were marked with miniature brides.

The hostess, assisted by her sisters, Lottie and Jean, and Mrs. H. C. Mayes, served bridal ices, individual cakes iced in white decorated with sweet peas, nuts and coffee.

After several animated progressions Miss Mary Ann Crouse was presented high score prize and Miss Peggy Arthur low score prize in bridge. Miss Dorcas Carpenter high score in rook, Miss Pauline Mauney, low.

The honorees were given brass plaques.

Surprise Party Given R. L. Mauney

Mr. R. L. Mauney was most happily surprised last Sunday morning when his class of 14 charming young ladies escorted him over to his home where they served him a beautiful birthday cake with iced coils. The cake was decorated in pink rosebuds and had his full name in pink letters.
