

Nine Lettermen At Central Camp

Nine lettermen are among the 25 or more candidates who have reported for practice at Kings Mountain high school baseball camp which got underway two weeks ago.

With the first loop game set for four weeks away (April 15 against Cliffside here) Coaches Everette Carlton and Don Parker have had the squad at the ball park most afternoons after school despite some mighty cool weather.

Lettermen are back at every position except catcher and third base, with the lineup as follows: infield, Jack Ruth, first; Boyce Huffstetler, second; and Jim Cobb, short; outfield, Jim Lybrand, Richard White, and Dwight Alexander; and pitchers, Carl Moss, Don Ellison, and Jerry Cloninger, all righthanders. Only Huffstetler and Alexander bat left handed among the veterans.

Candidates for the catching job include Curtis Wright, Jimmy Guyton, and Joe Costner. Wright bats left. Guyton and Costner right. Other candidates include: infield, Billie Shytle, Vernon Smith, Fred Tate, Jackie Barrett, Ken Dalton, and Don B. Gardner; outfield, Steve Jones; and pitchers, Harold Pearson, Horace Cunningham, and Charles Painter, all righthanders.

Logan Calls Hawaii To Get In On Shelby

Carl Logan, local meat market operator, is quite a "ham" on the airwaves.

Harold Hunnicutt, another rabid short-wave operator, told this one on Carl the other day.

Logan, who has a short-wave set at his home on West Gold street, decided to tune in on C. W. Ham's frequency in Shelby the other night and bat the breeze. He discovered Ham talking to a fellow "ham" in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Not to be outdone, Logan tuned his set in on the Honolulu "ham", over-rode Ham, and told the operator, several thousand miles away, to ask Ham in Shelby 10 airline miles away, to get in touch with him, he wanted to talk over some things. Bill Leigh, Gastonia, directors with two years remaining.

Rigid Enforcement Of Dog Law To Begin

Kings Mountain police will begin rigid enforcement of the stray dog ordinance according to announcement by N. M. Farr, chief of police.

Stray dogs roaming the streets of the city will be shot, the announcement said. Dogs are required by city law to wear collars and city dog tags.

"Tightening down of city dog ordinance at this time is precautionary," Chief Farr said, "because of the many instances of rabid dogs and other animals in Upper Cleveland county and in Gaston and other surrounding counties."

No rabid animals have been reported recently in the Kings Mountain area, he said.
