Miss Tindall Becomes Bride Of J. H. McKee

Miss Ethel Marguerite Tindall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Tindall of Kings Mountain, became the bride of James Howard McKee, son of Mrs. S. L. McKee and the late Mr. McKee of Shelby, Sunday in a simple but impressive ceremony held immediately after the morning service at the First Baptist church in Kings Mountain. The Rev. L. C. Pinix officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by the bride's sister, Miss Melba Ann Tindall, vocalist, and Miss Lufia Mae Teague, organist.

The couple came into the church and to the altar together and unattended. The bride wore a champagne suit with navy blue accessories and a cluster of red roses pinned at her shoulder.

The bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is employed as cashier at Keeter's Department store in Kings Mountain. The bridegroom is a graduate of Boiling Springs high school and is employed as a shipping clerk at the Mauney Hosiery Mill.

After the ceremony an informal luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding and luncheon included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooper, and daughter of Gaffney, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Talmedge Lauderdale, Troutman, Miss Ethel Haynes of Hickory, and Mrs. S. L. McKee, Mrs. Faye Lovelace and son, Larry, and Mr. and Mrs. T. D.

Miss Griffin Honored With Luncheon

Miss Je'Anne Griffin, bride-elect, was the recipient of a lovely honor when she was entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Norman Morrow and Miss Caroline Morrow at their home in Gastonia on Saturday at one o'clock.

The tables were exquisitely appointed with embroidered linen cut-work covers, crystal and silver. Each was centered with a dainty nosegay arrangement of fragrant violets and the bride's and her mother's places indicated by corsages of the same flower. A color motif of purple and green was used throughout the rooms and also in the menu.

The hostesses served grape cocktail, purple congealed salad with pressed chicken on lettuce with butter-ham rolls and coffee followed by raspberry shortcake. Place cards were miniature picture hats.

The bride was presented a sugar and cream set in her china pattern.

Those attending the luncheon were Miss Je'Anne Griffin, honoree, and her mother, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mesdames Aubrey Mauney, Charles Carpenter, Jr., Milton Fryer, Fred McDaniel and Miss Carolyn McDaniel of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Richard Ferguson, Mrs. George Patterson, Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. Philhower, and Miss Ruth Day Michael of Gastonia and Mrs. B. M. Squires of Charlotte.

Tindall, all of Shelby. After the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. McKee left for a short honeymoon after which they will live at 204 East King street.

Cake Cutting Held At Country Club

Last Friday night after the Plonk-Lackey rehearsal Miss Jette Plonk entertained members of the wedding party the members of the two immediate families, and a few close friends at a cake cutting at the Kings Mountain Country Club.

Pink azaleas, glads and candles were used in the club reception rooms.

In the private dining room bridal colors of green and white were effectively used. The bride's table was graced with a cut work linen cloth, centered with a silver five-branched candelabra holding white tapers, on one end was an antique china urn filled with a graceful arrangement of snapdragons and fern. The bride's cake a beautiful creation in three tiers tipped with a miniature bride and groom was placed on the other end symbols for the cake were spread under the cake these being tied with white satin ribbon and extending the length of the table.

A large cut glass punch bowl was used on a side table, this was surrounded with white snapdragons and greenery, from this punch was served by Miss Carlyle Ware and Mrs. J. C. Plonk. The first slice of cake was cut by the bride-elect, Mrs. P. D. Patrick then cut and served the cake.

Mrs. Caswell Taylor and son, Caswell Taylor, Jr., served block ice cream and nuts.

Those other than the wedding party enjoying Miss Plonk's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Neisler, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Webb, Mrs. and Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ormand, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Harmon, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Mrs. R. D. Goforth, Mr. W. L. Plonk, Mrs. G. V. Patterson of Gastonia, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cline of Fallston.
