MYF Sponsor
Easter Program

"The Old Rugged Cross" was the theme of the morning worship Sunday at the meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. A cross, and a painting of dogwood painted by a former member, Mrs. Tommy Alston, Jr., were used as a worship center. Kitty Falls, as program leader, gave interpretations of hymns about the cross, which the group sang. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by Jack Matthews, Billy Allen, and Hunter Warlick. "The Legend of the Dogwood" provided the talk. The program was presented from the rear of the chapel, with a spotlight on the worship center.

Next Sunday morning a special Easter program will be presented in the youth chapel at 10 o'clock, "Christ Arose," with Jean Davis serving as program chairman, and special music by B. S. Peeler, Jr.

At the evening meeting of the Senior Youth Fellowship, Jack Matthews conducted a brief program, followed by Junior choir practice under the direction of B. S. Peeler, Jr. Next Sunday evening the program theme will be "The Message of Easter."

Seniors met Tuesday night at the home of Nan Jean Gantt for a "Workshop" during which they made plans for an Easter program to be presented in the chapel on Good Friday.
