Large Bridge Party At Woman's Club

One of the largest and most outstanding parties of the week was given Monday night in the Woman's Club by Mrs. J. C. Bridges and Mrs. G. E. Bridges.

The lounge of the club was very festive with the crystal bowl of varied colored floating pansies. On the mantle a low arrangement of white glads and iris softened with lacy fern was used. Below the mantle were pots of gorgeous hydrangeas.

The eleven tables placed around the room were set for refreshments on the arrival of the guests. A very unique Easter Lady was at each one's place as a favor. Attractive tallies and napkins added both color and charm to the table appointments. Apple pie, nut cups with assorted nuts and coffee was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. G. A. Bridges, Mrs. B. T. Wright, Jr., Mrs. Stallings and Mrs. D. F. Hord, Jr.

Two floating prizes were offered; one for bidding and making a slam one for a trick taken with the nine of trumps. During the four progressions these prizes were kept on the move.

When cards were laid aside and scores counted high award went to Mrs. Jim Smith, low to Mrs. Fuller McGill. For bidding and making a slam Mrs. J. M. Cooper carried off the prize with Mrs. L. E. Abbott capturing the other floating prize.

Chip McGinnis Feted On Second Birthday

A delightful meeting of the Tuesday Night Bridge Club was held this week with Mrs. Frank Hoyle as hostess at her home on Railroad avenue.

Artistic arrangements of lilies and lilacs made the home unusually colorful for the three tables that were appointed for refreshments on the arrival of the guests. Each table was centered with a miniature basket of spring flowers, a very tempting dessert course with nuts and coffee was served.

After the progressions score prizes were awarded Mrs. E. A. Smith and Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., Mrs. Wm. Brewer of Alexander, Va., a former member, was also presented a gift.

Those playing other than club members were Mrs. Wm. Brewer, Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mrs. W. R. Craig, Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. P. M. Neisler and Mrs. Jay Patterson.

Girl Scout News

Troop 14
The Brownie Scout Troop No. 14 met in our Brownie room. After our opening ceremony Miss Stabler and Mrs. E. T. Plott visited us. We learned two dances - picking up paw paws and swinging in a swing. This Sunday morning we are going to the Baptist church for their Girl Scout Investiture service. Sunday afternoon we are going on a hike.
Jane Thomson

Troop No. 4
Girl Scout Troop No. 4 met at the church last Wednesday. We made some Easter place cards to go on the plates at the County Home on Easter day.
Then we cleaned up our room. We have some pretty green and white curtains and a table draped in green.
This week we are going to make Buddy Burners.
Dixie Cline

FOR WARD 4 COMMISSIONER
I hereby announce my candidacy for City Commissioner from Ward 4. If elected, I shall endeavor to carry out the business of the City in an economical manner.
