

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. P. D. HERNDON, Editor

PHONE 167

Mrs. Hamrick Fetes Fortnighters Club

Mrs. L. W. Hamrick of Boiling Springs entertained the members of the Fortnighters Club at a delightful meeting last Thursday afternoon at the Kings Mountain Country Club.

The private dining room where the tables were placed for bridge was profusely decorated with roses and larkspur.

A refreshment course of strawberry shortcake and ice tea was served prior to the games.

Mrs. George Houser was recipient of high score award. Mrs. Gerald Morgan of Shelby and Mrs. P. M. Neisler were invited guests.

Miss Gillespie Has Part In Pageant

WINSTON-SALEM. — The Salem College May Day committee on May

7th presented their annual May Day Festival, the theme of the pageant was "The Festival of Venus."

Portraying one of the leading characters, Mercury, was Miss Emelyn Gillespie, a senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gillespie of Kings Mountain. Miss Gillespie served on the May Day Committee, being in charge of Programs.

Mrs. Lona McGill Honored With Dinner

A very lovely dinner party honoring Mrs. Lona McGill on Mother's Day was given at the Cleveland Hotel in Shelby by her children, Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McGill of Kings Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kennedy of Shelby, LeRoy McGill of Gastonia and Elmer McGill of Mooresville. The honoree was presented a corsage.

Mrs. Kiser Gives Series Of Parties

Mrs. Arnold Kiser entertained at a series of dinner bridge parties, beautiful in every detail, last week at her attractive home on East King street. The first party was on Tuesday night.

Artistic arrangements of snapdragons, larkspur, roses and other spring flowers made the home unusually colorful for the parties.

In the center of the dining room table was a silver bowl with a charming arrangement of larkspur in pastel shades flanked on either side with a silver candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Four tables had been placed for bridge and were appointed for dinner on the guests arrival. A miniature bowl of various colored pansies graced the center of each table. Country ham, creamed turkey and all the accessories for a delicious meal with strawberry short cake was served.

When covers were removed bridge was enjoyed. When tallies were counted Mrs. George Houser was presented high award for ladies with Drace Peeler winning high for men. Low score prizes were given Mrs. Garland Still and George Houser.

On Wednesday night Mrs. Kiser again entertained at a dinner bridge. Four tables were grouped for play amid a setting of lovely mixed flowers. After a very tempting dinner interesting progressions of bridge ensued with high score for ladies going to Mrs. Hunter Neisler. George Lattimore carrying off high for men. Mrs. George Lattimore and Jim Smith were also presented prizes.

MYF Have Many Programs

John Warlick was program chairman Sunday morning for a worship service in the youth chapel where the entire Methodist Youth Fellowship met. "Christ Knocks at Our Heart's Door" was the theme of the program, using Norman Hunt's painting, "The Light of the World" as a worship center, with potted ivy below it, and ivy and carnations on the sides, also a lighted candle. "O Jesus Thy Art Standing" was sung by Dorothy Smith, accompanied by Barbara Grantham on the piano. Interpretation of the painting was given by the Senior teacher. Next Sunday morning Walter Griffin will serve as program chairman.

The Senior MYF met at 7 o'clock Sunday evening for a program on "Serving Where You Live", led by Hunter Warlick. The group made plans for a picnic and swimming party at Lake Montonia next Sunday, and are to leave the church at 2 p. m. A program, "Serving Other Communities," is being planned by Barbara Gault.

This group is looking forward to a youth camp to be held at the foot of Mt. Mitchell the last week in June.

Methodist Youth Council Meets

The Youth Council, Central Methodist church, was to meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Barbara Gault. This council is composed of all youth officers, commission chairman, and adult workers with youth. At this meeting the nomination of new officers was to be held, and plans made for summer assemblies and other activities.

MYF To Meet At Central Church

A large attendance is anticipated at the monthly meeting of the Gastonia Sub-District Methodist Youth Fellowship next Thursday evening, May 26, at Central Methodist church. New officers will be installed at this meeting, including Bill Allen, who was elected Treasurer at the last meeting. He has been treasurer of the MYF at Central church for two years. The Woman's Society is to prepare light refreshments.

Junior YWA Girls Met Tuesday Night

The Junior Y. W. A. girls of the First Baptist church met with Miss Betty Knox Davis, Tuesday night.

A very interesting program was presented by Miss Carolyn Early, leader for the evening.

During the business meeting it was decided to send towels to the Baptist Hospital as the community mission work for the month.

Group singing was enjoyed by the seven members present.

Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. P. G. Ratterhee Hostess To Circle

The Frances Garrison circle of the ARP church met Monday night with Mrs. Friede Ratterhee.

Fourteen members were present. The circle was delighted to have the following visitors: Mrs. Lona McGill, Mrs. Campbell Phifer, Mrs. Grady Patterson and Mrs. Bright Ratterhee.

Miss Freelo Black, assisted by Mrs. Ben Goforth gave a most interesting and helpful program on Junior and Intermediate work.

At the conclusion of a short business session, a social hour was enjoyed. The circle members and guests were invited into the dining room where delightful refreshments were served.

La Fite Club With Mrs. H. R. Parton

Four tables of Rook were in play last Friday night when Mrs. H. R. Parton entertained the members of the La Fite Rook club and other guests at her home. After the arrival of the guests Little Lynda Parton, who was lovely in a blue evening dress, passed the tallies.

When guests were seated at the tables a large birthday cake was brought in and "Happy Birthday" sang to Mrs. R. D. Goforth. A corsage of red rosebuds was given Mrs. Goforth by the hostess. Templing London Mist was served with the birthday cake.

After four animated progressions visitors awards were presented Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mrs. Bessie Dickey With Mrs. Bessie Gantt winning high score for club members and Mrs. Edith Goforth, low.

When cards were laid aside many lovely gifts were presented Mrs. Goforth.

Invited to play with the club members were Mrs. J. R. Davis, Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Mrs. H. E. Lynch, Mrs. Marshall Heavner, Mrs. Bessie Dickey and Mrs. Lynwood Parton.

Miss Peggy Smith Bride-Elect Honored

Complimenting Miss Peggy Smith, bride-elect the Glad Girls class of the First Baptist church entertained at the home of Mrs. L. L. Benson.

Numerous games and contests were enjoyed with prizes going to the winners, these were presented the honoree.

A sweet course with party accessories was served the 17 members and invited guests.

High light of the party was the surprise lingerie shower given Miss Smith during the social hour.

The George Housers Hosts To Bridge Club

Amid a setting of mixed spring flowers two tables of bridge were in play Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. George Houser entertained the Bid and By Club.

A prettily appointed refreshment plate was served.

After several interesting progressions high awards were presented to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson.

WE'LL MOP UP THE STREET!

TO PROVE TO YOU THE NEW

MONITOR Aerator
WASHING MACHINE

WILL WASH CLEANER AND FASTER! $69.50

See this remarkable family washer. Learn what it will do in your home. ALL AMERICA IS BUYING THE AFRATOR

COOPERS, Inc.
PHONE 93

Subscribe To The Herald—$2 Per Year

Ladies Attention!

Saunders

Jantzen

JANTZEN SWIM SUITS
$11.95 to $16.95

JANTZEN PLAY SUITS
$6.95

JANTZEN SHORTS AND T-SHIRTS
$2.95 to $4.95

Saunders

STRAW HATS
are the Order of the Day!

Genuine Panamas

By Champ

Your favorite name in hats. Variety of styles, colors, wide choice of bands to match your suits or slacks. Cool, comfortable.

$3.98 to $4.95

Other Straws $1.48 to $1.98

These are exceptional buys. Our $1.98 model is WATER-RESISTANT. Our $1.48 model looks like it should sell for double the price.

BELK'S Dept. Store

Remember—You Always Save At Belk's