Surprise Shower Given Miss May, Bride-Elect

Mrs. J. R. Davis, Miss Margaret Goforth and Miss Sylvia Spratt entertained Thursday night at the home of the former complimenting Miss Audrey Doris May, bride-elect of the summer.

The spacious Davis home was exceptionally pretty for the affair, being decorated throughout with summer flowers which were arranged in harmonious groups, the bridal colors of green and white predominating.

Eight tables were appointed for refreshments on the guests arrival. Each table was centered with a miniature vase of fever few. The hostesses served an enticing frozen salad, pickles, sandwiches and iced punch. A sweet course was passed.

When covers were removed a dish of green and white mints were placed on each table. Tallies were drawn partners found and several progressions of Hearts ensued. Gifts were presented Mrs. Packard Elliott for winning high and Miss Pattee for holding low score. While they were opening their gifts the door bell rang. Mrs. Davis called Miss May to the door as there was a package for her. Upon going to the door she found a large white basket overflowing with gifts. These were carried in the living room for her, amid much merriment and teasing from the group. She opened each package and passed it around for the groups inspection. She received several pieces of silver and crystal in her chosen patterns as well as many attractive and useful miscellaneous gifts.

Mrs. Packard Elliott of Shelby was the only out-of-town guest present.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honors Miss Falls

Miss Iris Falls, of Shelby, whose wedding to Ray Francis will take place June 24, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday night given by her aunts, Mrs. George Blalock and Mrs. Sam Howell at the Woman's club.

Pretty arrangements of larkspur, sweetpeas, baby's breath and feverfew made the club especially pretty for the occasion. Miniature bride and bridesmaid figurines were used to decorate the mantle and table.

At the beginning of the party the hostesses presented Miss Falls with a corsage of white carnations.

Bridal games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Ray Allen of Shelby and Mrs. Ben Beam of Kings Mountain. After a period of games the hostesses served refreshments of cake squares inscribed with "Iris and Ray," salted nuts and punch.

A shower of gifts from the 50 guests present was presented to Miss Falls at the close of the party.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney Fetes Ace Of Clubs

The home of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney was beautifully decorated last Thursday afternoon with larkspur, orange lilies and roses when she entertained the members of the Ace of Clubs.

When scores were tallied, high score prizes were given Mrs. C. F. Mauney and Mrs. F. W. Plonk.

Mrs. C. E. Neisler and A. S. Cover joined the group for refreshments, which consisted of an ice course with accessories.

Mrs. C. D. Blanton and Mrs. F. W. Plonk were recipients of the high score awards.

MYF Commission Chairmen Elected

Sunday morning the following commission chairmen were elected by the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship: Worship and Evangelism, Dorothy Smith; Community Service, Ramona Allen; World Friendship, John Warlick; and Recreation, Bobby Goforth.

On Sunday morning, June 26, the installation of new officers and commission chairmen will be conducted in the youth chapel by Rev. J. H. Brendall, Jr.

The Youth Fellowship met in the chapel Sunday morning for a program, "The Healer," led by Patsy Jolly, who gave two readings, "Jesus Christ—and We" and "Thy Neighbor." A copy of the painting, "The Healer" was drawn by Patricia Prince with pen and ink and colors, and placed on a large bulletin board as a worship center. Roses and ivy were placed on the sides. Patricia gave the interpretation of the picture herself, which portrayed a white missionary ministering to the needs of a sick African child held by his native mother, with others looking on. The faintly visible figure of Christ stood in the background behind the healer, signifying, "Inasmuch as you did it unto the least of these, you did it unto me."

Next Sunday morning a Father's Day program will be led by Doris Jolly, using the painting, "The Workshop at Nazareth," as a worship center.

Rev. Brendall introduced the group on Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. I. Ben Goforth, Jr., who are to serve as counselors for the Senior group at their evening meetings. The Seniors were very happy to have them with them Sunday evening, when a delicious supper was served at the home of Ann Mayes by Mrs. G. F. Lattimore's circle, and a program, "A Growing Mind," was led by Jo Ann Wright. The new counselors also met with them Monday night when Walter Griffin was host to the Seniors at his home for a "Workshop" meeting to plan program and recreation.

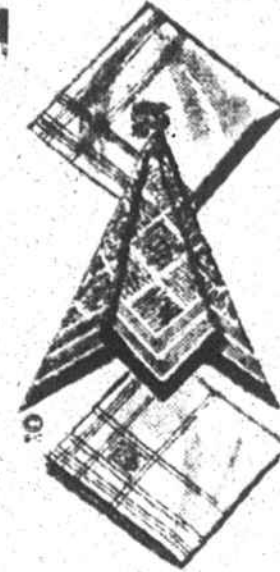

Next Sunday evening the Senior MYF meets with Mr. and Mrs. I. Ben Goforth, at which time Dorothy Smith will lead a discussion on "There Go My Emotions."

Seniors are to attend the Gastonia Youth Sub-District meeting next Thursday night, June 23, at Concord Methodist church.

The state of Mississippi ranks third in the U. S. in the production of cotton. Its mineral production is valuable; its agricultural assets other than cotton, are large and varied.
