MR. AND MRS. EVERETT MEDLIN

Miss Betty Weaver And Everett Medlin
Wed In Home Ceremony Saturday

Miss Betty Weaver and Everett "Buddy" Medlin were united in marriage in a simple but impressive ceremony which took place at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, July 2, at 3 o'clock. Rev. C. B. Bobbitt officiated.

A prettily improvised altar was arranged in front of the mantle in the living room of the home. The background was of lacy greenery and arrangements of floor baskets of white gladioli, baby's breath and ferns interspersed with candelabras holding white tapers. Bowls of white carnations, baby's breath and gladioli were placed in various places about the room.

The couple entered the ceremony room together and unattended. The bride wore a suit of white summer gabardine with navy blue accessories. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid showered with baby's breath and white satin ribbon.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue shawl crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a decorated three-tiered wedding cake, flanked on either side with candelabras holding white tapers. The table was decorated with lacy fern, icecream, green and white mints and punch was served with the cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. K. J. Huffstetler, Mrs. Floyd Payne, Mrs. B. T. Burton and Mrs. Ben Ware.

After the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip.

Coronation Service
At First Baptist Church

Three Intermediate girls were crowned queens in a coronation service held at the First Baptist church Friday night.

The service was under the direction of Mrs. Frank Ussery, leader of Intermediate girls auxiliary. Mrs. L. C. Pinnix was accompanist.

Prior to the crowning of the queens, Misses Cynthia Platt, Marjorie Tesseneer, Melba Tindall, and Evelyn Cline, who are maidens, ladies in waiting, and princesses, respectively, were heralded in and repeated together the Girls Auxiliary Allegiance. As the pianist played "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," each queen approached alone with her crown bearer. The queens were: Cornelia Ware, with Mike Ware as crown bearer; Phyllis Ware with Dianne Roberts; Sandra Hovis with Carolyn Pinnix. Each queen repeated one of the requirements to become queen prior to being crowned by Mrs. A. W. Kincaid who represented the Woman's Missionary Union.

Following the coronation all the girls sang their auxiliary hymns, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." Mrs. Kincaid closed the meeting with prayer.

Following the coronation there was a period of fellowship when punch and cookies were served.
