Mrs. Keeter Hostess To Study Club

Members of the Study Club were entertained at a very delightful meeting last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. J. B. Keeter.

Mrs. Keeter invited members to the side terrace where small tables were placed and attractively set for refreshments. When all had assembled we were invited to the outdoor dining room where tempting friend chicken, potato salad, corn on the cob, stuffed tomatoes, celery and carrot curls, pickles and cheese biscuits were served picnic style, we returned to the small tables to eat. Mrs. Keeter assisted by her daughter, Mrs. D. F. Hord, served iced watermelon. After such a sweltering day we found it a treat to be out in the open and enjoy the good food and pleasant breeze.

When tables were cleared, Mrs. B. N. Barnes, president, presided over the meeting. She presented Mrs. Pride Ratterree, program leader, who introduced Mrs. Luther Cansler, speaker for the evening. Mrs. Cansler in a very charming way told of the original Girls Scouting and some of the achievements that have been accomplished through the Girl Scouts.
