

Society

MR. P. D. HERNDON, Editor

PHONE 167

Miss Louise Lindsay Party Honoree

As a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Louise Lindsay, bride-elect, Mrs. Lee Dixon and Mrs. Kenneth Pruitt entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Dixon. A variety of fall flowers added a festive air to party rooms.

On her arrival Miss Lindsay was presented a corsage of tube roses by the hostesses.

Bridal games and contests were played. A recipe book with pictures of the bride-elect was passed around and each one wrote her favorite recipe.

During the refreshment period a very attractive salad plate was served consisting of congealed salad heart shaped sandwiches cut from green bread, green stars with cream cheese, cookies, nuts and punch.

Twenty friends were present and showered the honoree with many useful and lovely gifts, which she opened amid much teasing and lively conversation.

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead Book Club Hostess

The October meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club was held on Saturday afternoon, October 15, at 3:30 with Mrs. W. M. Moorhead at her home on Railroad avenue.

Bowls of colorful fall flowers were used as room decorations.

Mrs. S. A. Lowery was in charge of a very interesting program on "Music." Mrs. P. D. Patrick gave a brief history of music. Franklin Pethel, discussed the purpose of music in the church. He played Chorale Prelude on-Now Comes the Gentle Saviour-Bach-Busoni; Shepherd's Sunday song. He delighted the group by singing "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked"-O'Hara, and "Gesu Bambino", Pietro Ayon.

Mrs. Harmon gave two sketches from Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch.

The hostess was assisted in serving a salad and sweet course with coffee.

Invited guests were Mrs. W. L. Pressly, Mrs. Helen G. Neal and Mrs. J. G. Darracott.

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead Gives Series Of Parties

The home of Mrs. W. M. Moorhead was in a festive mood with many bowls of bright fall flowers including dahlias, snapdragons, chrysanthemums and roses on Monday afternoon when she entertained with four tables of bridge.

The guests arrived at 3:30 and found places at tables covered with linen covers and centered with a miniature arrangement of dainty flowers. The hostess assisted by Mrs. J. K. Willis, Mrs. A. W. Kincaid and Mrs. J. H. Arthur served a chicken salad course and coffee, a sweet course was passed.

Four progressions of bridge ensued with Mrs. W. K. Manney winning high score, Mrs. H. T. Fulton winning the consolation prize.

Mrs. Moorhead was hostess again on Tuesday night, guests to make up three tables of bridge assembled in the living room and den which were decorated with a variety of fall flowers.

Each table held a small jack-o-lantern, the Halloween idea was further carried out on the refreshment plates. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Phillip Padgett and Mrs. L. E. Abbott served a salad course followed by a sweet course and coffee.

Tables were rearranged for bridge. At the conclusion of the evening's games Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., held top score with Mrs. Bill Page holding low score. Lovely gifts were awarded these ladies.

Mrs. Moorhead was hostess again on Tuesday night, guests to make up three tables of bridge assembled in the living room and den which were decorated with a variety of fall flowers.

Each table held a small jack-o-lantern, the Halloween idea was further carried out on the refreshment plates. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Phillip Padgett and Mrs. L. E. Abbott served a salad course followed by a sweet course and coffee.

Tables were rearranged for bridge. At the conclusion of the evening's games Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., held top score with Mrs. Bill Page holding low score. Lovely gifts were awarded these ladies.

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead Book Club Hostess

The October meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club was held on Saturday afternoon, October 15, at 3:30 with Mrs. W. M. Moorhead at her home on Railroad avenue.

Bowls of colorful fall flowers were used as room decorations.

Mrs. S. A. Lowery was in charge of a very interesting program on "Music." Mrs. P. D. Patrick gave a brief history of music. Franklin Pethel, discussed the purpose of music in the church. He played Chorale Prelude on-Now Comes the Gentle Saviour-Bach-Busoni; Shepherd's Sunday song. He delighted the group by singing "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked"-O'Hara, and "Gesu Bambino", Pietro Ayon.

Mrs. Harmon gave two sketches from Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch.

The hostess was assisted in serving a salad and sweet course with coffee.

Invited guests were Mrs. W. L. Pressly, Mrs. Helen G. Neal and Mrs. J. G. Darracott.

Masons Honor John B. Smathers

The following excerpt from a news report will be of interest to Kings Mountain friends of Johnny C. Smathers, of Charlotte, who stopped here for a short while last Thursday enroute to Canton to attend a meeting at the Masonic Hall, planned in honor of his father John B. Smathers, who was passing his nineteenth milestone and other past masters of the lodge; John B. Smathers, not only the oldest Mason in Haywood County, but also the oldest from point of service, enjoyed the festivities planned in his honor last Thursday night.

His son, Johnny C. Smathers, past master of Excelsior Lodge No. 261 A. F. & A. M. Charlotte, N. C., was asked to present a gift as a token of love and friendship and the aged man, who had been an active member of the lodge for sixty-five years concluded his acceptance speech by saying, "I hope to be back with you ten years from now to celebrate my one hundredth anniversary."

Later in the evening when presented a huge birthday cake bearing ninety lighted candles, he gladly posed for pictures made by Asheville and Canton photographers.

Golden Trefoil Ceremony Held Oct. 14

The Woman's Club was the scene of a lovely and impressive Girl Scout ceremony on Friday evening, October 14. There were nearly one hundred scouts participating in a candlelight service.

Rev. W. H. Stender, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, gave the invocation and introductory remarks. He then lighted the church Taper from which all other candles were lighted.

Miss Fannie Funerburke, Pioneer Area G. S. Director, present for the investiture, began with these inspiring words:

"Tonight is a very happy occasion for Kings Mountain in that it brings together for the first time all adult leaders in Girl Scouting. This is the hour of the Golden Trefoil—our symbol of Scouting. 'Tis the hour when all of you will enter its portals and exist a full Girl Scout. Its the hour of another beginning — one filled to the brim with adventurous, joyous living and stimulating experiences."

Mrs. Luther Cansler, chairman of the Town Committee, presented the Chairmen of the Executive Committee. They, in turn, presented their committee members. All lighted candles from the church taper and passed through the door of the Golden Trefoil and were escorted to a place in a horseshoe.

A second horseshoe was formed in the same manner by all troop leaders, assistant troop leaders, and troop committees.

The third and very large horseshoe was made up of the ministers and their church committees.

A Golden Trefoil pin was placed upon the Troop Leaders.

After singing the Girl Scout Chant, the Scout Hymn, and a Prayer of Dedication a get-acquainted hour was held.

Bridge Luncheon Given At Country Club

Mrs. C. E. Warlick and Mrs. A. H. Patterson were hostesses at a bridge luncheon Wednesday, October 19, their guests including Mrs. J. C. Smathers, Mrs. Jesse Kiser, Mrs. Eugene J. Vincent, Mrs. Harry B. King, Mrs. F. A. Decker, Mrs. George Hallman, all of Charlotte; Mrs. I. B. Goforth and Mrs. Carl Mayes of Kings Mountain.

A tempting three-course luncheon was enjoyed at the Country Club and later bridge was played at the Patterson home on Gaston street.

Table prizes for high score were presented Mrs. Harry B. King and Mrs. Eugene J. Vincent. Mrs. F. A. Decker was winner of the bingo prize.

Some of the pictures including his two sons and a son-in-law, all of whom are Masons. The cake was cut and served to the one hundred or more guests.

Personals

(Omitted last week)

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Mauney expect to attend the Shriner's Convention in Asheville over the weekend.

Jack Hullender, Eddie Campbell and Dwight Ware, students at E. C. T. C., were here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Plonk were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lackey of Fallston.

Master Larry Franks of Gaffney, S. C., spent last Wednesday with his aunt, Mrs. Craig Bost.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith and son Walter, of Charlotte, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keller.

Mrs. J. B. Simpson of St. Augustine, Fla., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Franks and children, Mrs. A. M. Lutz, of Gaffney, and Miss Irene Hewitt of Gastonia were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Bost.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blankenship and son, Joe, of Florence were guests of Mrs. Blankenship's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gault during the weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Brendall and Mr. B. S. Neill were among those in Charlotte Tuesday attending the Methodist Mass meeting under the direction of Bishop Costin J. Harrell. This was one of the seventy-eight mass meetings to be held in the Methodist church all over the United States launching "The Advance For Christ" program for the year.

Mr. W. M. Hord who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks seems a little stronger and recognized the following children who were here Sunday: William Hord, Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Kiser Hord of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Walter and children of Goldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davis of Greensboro, and Mrs. John Bridges, a sister-in-law, of Colletsville, N. C.

Stallings Entertain Hi-Lo Bridge Club

Members of the Hi-Lo Bridge Club met Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings their hosts, at their home on Crescent Hill Road. Two tables were arranged for play in the living room which was made colorful with arrangements of bright fall flowers.

After playing four progressions, the scores were tallied and Mrs. D. F. Hord was presented high prize for the ladies, and J. C. Bridge won high prize for the men.

The hostess served coca colas and a delightful snack plate of hot hamburger sandwiches, pickles, and onions with tomato, lettuce and potato chips.

West School P. T. A. met Wednesday afternoon, October 19, at three o'clock with sixty members present.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts of the First Baptist church with Mrs. W. F. Houser, their leader, gave a very interesting program on "Safety."

Plans were made for the Halloween Carnival to be held at West School on Monday night, October 31st, beginning at six o'clock.

Lindsay-Early Invitations Issued

The following invitations were issued last week:

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lindsay request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Katherine Louise to Mr. Paul Edward Early on Saturday, the twelfth of November nineteen hundred and forty-nine at eight o'clock in the evening. First Baptist Church Kings Mountain, N. C.

Birthday Party Honors Jimmy Jones

Mrs. C. A. Jones, Jr. entertained Tuesday afternoon, October 18, at her home at 403 East Ridge street honoring her son, Jimmy, who was celebrating his eighth birthday anniversary.

Bingo was played and prizes won by Linda Bennett, Pinky Jewel Short and Donnie Parker.

A color note of black and yellow was observed. Halloween masks were given each guest as favors.

Mrs. Jones assisted by Mrs. Harry Dellinger served cake, candy and cold drinks.

The guests were: Linda Bennett, Gracie Dagenhart, Amelia Lou Kiser, Pinky Jewel Short, Ann and Toni Jones, Noel Webster, Stephen Wright, Harold Stender, Harold Henderson, Donnie and Punch Parker, and Ernest Howell.

Circle Meetings

The Frances Garrison circle met Monday night with Mrs. Marvin Goforth at her home.

The meeting was opened with prayer after which Mrs. W. G. Grantham had charge of the program, the subject of which was "Home Missions and Bible Mastery."

Nineteen were present including three visitors, one of whom became a member of the circle. We were so glad to enroll her.

Regular routine business was conducted by the circle chairman, during which a special collection was received for our mission church being established in Augusta, Ga.

At the conclusion of the business session a delicious refreshment plate with coffee was served by the hostess.

Circle Meetings

The Frances Garrison circle met Monday night with Mrs. Marvin Goforth at her home.

The meeting was opened with prayer after which Mrs. W. G. Grantham had charge of the program, the subject of which was "Home Missions and Bible Mastery."

Nineteen were present including three visitors, one of whom became a member of the circle. We were so glad to enroll her.

Regular routine business was conducted by the circle chairman, during which a special collection was received for our mission church being established in Augusta, Ga.

At the conclusion of the business session a delicious refreshment plate with coffee was served by the hostess.

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead Party Hostess

The home of Mrs. W. M. Moorhead was the scene of a lovely party Thursday night when she entertained with four tables of Rook.

The home was artfully decorated with a profusion of fall flowers, snapdragons, large mums and zinnias were predominant.

The tables placed for rook were appointed for refreshments when the guests arrived. Each was covered with a Madeira cloth and centered with a very attractive miniature arrangement of dainty flowers. The hostess was assisted in serving a chicken salad plate, tasty accessories and coffee, passing orange fruit cake topped with whipped cream and cherries.

Rook was enjoyed for several hours with Mrs. J. K. Willis and Mrs. R. L. Mauney tying for high score, with Mrs. Mauney winning at drawing for high. Miss Marie Lineberger received the consolation gift.

West School P. T. A. Meets

West School P. T. A. met Wednesday afternoon, October 19, at three o'clock with sixty members present.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts of the First Baptist church with Mrs. W. F. Houser, their leader, gave a very interesting program on "Safety."

Plans were made for the Halloween Carnival to be held at West School on Monday night, October 31st, beginning at six o'clock.

Queen Of Clubs Meet With Mrs. David Neill

The Queen of Clubs met Tuesday night, October 18, with Mrs. David Neill, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Webb.

The hostess served a dessert course prior to the games. When cards were laid aside and tallies counted it was revealed Miss Dorcas Carpenter held high score, Miss Betty Hord, low score.

Miss Mary Heien Wright was an invited guest of the hostess.

SO PLEASANT!

That's what thousands say about Capoline, the LIQUID headache relief. Yes, pleasant to take—no rays on the stomach, and gives such delightful relief, and so quickly. Being liquid, Capoline's carefully selected pain-relieving ingredients go to work at once to relieve headache and neuralgia. Next time get LIQUID Capoline and see the difference. Use as directed on label.

Enter FORD'S $100,000 CAR-SAFETY CONTEST and get this attractive reflector installed FREE! SEE ANY FORD DEALER NOW!

WHEN YOUR SKATE DATE HITS THE FLOOR AND YOUR KIDDING MAKES HER SORE... IT'S TIME FOR Cheerwine!

Take time out. Refresh yourself with a frosty bottle of delicious, energizing CHEERWINE! Serve CHEERWINE at home. Great for you. Great for the kiddies.

Cheerwine is in tune with the American taste

DRINK Cheerwine

Keep a supply at home. Buy a 6-bottle carton or a case today!

ON ALL OCCASIONS CHEERWINE IS GOOD TASTE

BURGERS Drive In

MORE POPULAR THAN EVER
Preferred by more users
than the next two makes combined!

CHEVROLET

ADVANCE-DESIGN TRUCKS

Featuring VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINES • DIAPHRAGM SPRING CLUTCH • SYNCHRO-MESH TRANSMISSIONS • HYPOID REAR AXLES • DOUBLE-ARTICULATED BRAKES • WIDE-BASE WHEELS • ADVANCE-DESIGN STYLING • BALL-TYPE STEERING • UNIT-DESIGN BODIES

Here's real proof of truck value! Now that operators can get the make they really want, Chevrolet Advance-Design trucks are setting new sales records every week. More and more buyers are insisting on the power, the comfort and safety they get in Chevrolet. They like Chevrolet's rugged good looks... the way Chevrolet trucks handle their hauling jobs with such low operating and upkeep expense. In fact, they like these advantages so well that they buy more Chevrolet trucks than the next two makes combined! Come in now, and talk over your trucking needs with us.

VICTORY CHEVROLET COMPANY

CORNER RAILROAD AVE. AT MOUNTAIN

PHONES 49 and 419