La Fate Club Meets With Mrs. C. A. Goforth

The home of Mrs. Charles A. Goforth was very festive Thursday night with arrangements of chrysanthemums when she entertained members of the La-Fate rook club and guests to make up five tables. After a pleasant evening of rook, high score award was presented Mrs. Bessie Gantt for club members and Mrs. A. H. Patterson received visitor's high, Mrs. H. R. Parton and Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg also received awards.

This being the birthday of one of the members Mrs. B. F. Beam, she was remembered with a gift from the club. The hostess presented Mrs. C. F. Thomasson a birthday gift and gave Mrs. Paul Beam, a recent bride a piece of crystal in her chosen pattern.

The hostess was assisted in serving a chicken salad course followed by a sweet course and coffee to the members and following guests: Mrs. Elmer Rhea, Mrs. David Hamrick, Mrs. Paul Beam, Mrs. A. H. Patterson, Mrs. B. S. Peeler, Mrs. L. A. Hoke, Mrs. J. N. Gamble, Mrs. C. F. Thomasson and Mrs. C. A. Goforth, Jr.

Mrs. Abbott Hostess To Duplicate Club

Numerous brilliant arrangements of roses and chrysanthemums were used about the home of Mrs. L. E. Abbott Monday afternoon when she entertained the Duplicate club and one invited guest, Mrs. Amos Dean.

Guests found their places and four progressions of bridge ensued with Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. D. M. Peeler winning high for the afternoon.

Two courses of refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. N. F. McGill Fetes Twin-Table Bridge

Mrs. N. F. McGill was party hostess Friday night entertaining members of the Twin-Table bridge club and two invited guests, Miss Leone Patterson and Mrs. W. L. Mauney.

Tables were attractively appointed for refreshments when guests came to the party. Each was centered with a miniature nosegay of dainty flowers. The hostess with the assistance of Mrs. I. B. Goforth served a chicken salad course with coffee. A sweet course was passed.

Following the course, the tables were rearranged for bridge which left game awards with Miss Leone Patterson, visitor high, Mrs. I. B. Goforth, club high, and Mrs. O. W. Myers.

The living and dining rooms were decorated with mixed flowers in unusual arrangements.

Miss Marion Arthur Bridge Hostess

Delightful in all appointments was the bridge party given Thursday night by Miss Marion Arthur at her home on West King Street.

Amid floral arrangements of snap dragons and chrysanthemums six tables were placed for bridge and set for refreshments upon the arrival of guests. The hostess was assisted in serving a salad and sweet course with coffee.

Tables were arranged for bridge and four animated progressions ensued with Miss Frances Payne and Pete McDaniel winning high score award, Miss Mary Ann Crouse and Dr. N. R. Reed receiving the consolation award.

Mrs. C. D. Blanton Fortnighter Hostess

Members and guests of the Fortnighters club were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Blanton.

The Blanton home was tastefully decorated with African violets and autumn berries.

High score prize for the afternoon was won by Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr.

During the plays a salad plate with coffee was served.

Invited guests of the hostess included: Mrs. H. S. Blackmer, Mrs. R. H. Webb, Mrs. L. E. Abbott, and Mrs. W. K. Madney, Jr.

Dehydrated sweet potatoes are valuable as a concentrate feed for dairy cows, says the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station. A 75-day feeding trial proved that dried "yams" were worth 99.4 per cent as much as ground yellow corn when completely displacing this grain.

Macon county now has 34 grade A dairies. Average size of herds is 34 cows each.
