Band Completing Busy Schedule

The Kings Mountain school band is now completing a busy fall schedule of activities, including appearances both in Kings Mountain and in other cities.

Through Thursday the Kings Mountain band, under the direction of Joe Hedden, had completed 12 of 18 scheduled engagements.

In addition to five performances at home football games, the Kings Mountain band had marched and played at Davidson college, for the Davidson Presbyterian football game, at Hickory, for the Lenoir-Rhyne homecoming program and football game with High Point College, for the Charlotte Christmas Festival and for the Armistic Day Parades in Shelby and Kings Mountain. Thursday afternoon the band was on duty at home for the Christmas opening parade here.

After Friday night's local football wind-up with Lincolnton, the band will take part in the Gaffney Christmas parade November 29, the Lincolnton Christmas parade November 30, and the Shelby Christmas parade on December 2.

It will be among the many bands at the Shrine Bowl game in Charlotte December 3, and will participate in the Cherryville Christmas parade December 9.
