Young Peoples Class Enjoy Party

The Young Peoples Class of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a lovely evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Paul Mauney, Monday when they had a weiner roast and taffy pull.

Weiners were roasted on the grill in the back yard and served with all the accessories for a tempting meal.

Later amid much merriment and "pulling" the taffy was found to be unusually good and congratulations went around as this was the first time some of the group had ever made taffy.

Tickets On Sale For Home Pilgrimage

Tickets for the Home Pilgrimage being planned for December 21, by the Kings Mountain Garden Club may be obtained from the committee: Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mrs. W. L. Ramseur, Mrs. Howard Jackson, and Mrs. J. L. McGill, or any Garden Club member.

Tickets will be one dollar to visit the homes opened or twenty five cents a home.

Much interest is being manifested not only locally, but in the surrounding towns as ladies and men are interested in the unusual Christmas decorations that will be shown.

Circle 5 Meets With Mrs. A. H. Patterson

Mrs. A. H. Patterson was hostess to member of Circle Number five, of Central Methodist church at her home on Gaston street Monday night.

The living room was arranged with candles and greenery making a suitable setting for the enjoyable Christmas program arranged by Mrs. M. H. Biser.

Mrs. G. C. Kelley read the Christmas Story from Luke's Gospel, after which prayer was offered by Mrs. W. M. Ganti and a Christmas Carol was sung by the group. Miss Nan Jean Ganti in a most delightful manner gave three readings, The Origin of Christmas, Good Will at the Movies, and Vespers.

Mrs. Ralph Mauney, chairman of the circle conducted the business meeting and after routine matters were attended to, a number of packages were collected to be used later in assisting with the White Christmas sponsored annually by the church organizations.

Mrs. Mauney presented Mrs. Bessie Bean, two teaspoons in her silver patterns, as a gift from the circle. The hostess assisted by Mrs. C. E. Warlick, served ambrosia, coconut cakes and Russian tea on individual trays.

Before leaving for their homes the group sang three Christmas carols.

Girl Scout Leaders Club Organized

On Tuesday night, November 29, at the Woman's Club the Girl Scout Leaders Club of our district was organized.

This club is composed of all Troop Leaders — Brownie, Intermediate, and Senior. Miss Flo Stabler, our Area Field Worker, will serve as Active Sponsor, and Miss Fannie Funderburke, Area Director, is overall Advisor.

Problem solving, fellowship and training will be provided through the club meetings.

Officers were elected as follows: President: Mrs. James Simpson. Vice-President: Mrs. M. C. Poston. Secretary: Mrs. Nell Cranford. Treasurer: Miss Helen Ramsey.

Program committee: Mrs. Hill Carpenter, Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Mrs. Polly Williams, and Miss Burlean Jackson from Davidson School Colored Troop.

Training committee: Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Mrs. Dean McDaniel, and Mrs. J. G. Gibson from Davidson School Colored Troop.

The Installation of Officers will be in January with Miss Fannie Funderburke, presiding.

Notice To Woman's Club Members

At the November meeting of the Woman's club the members voted to send a box to a needy family in Italy.

At the next meeting, December 16, any member who can bring a gift of clothing or food or anything that is not perishable is asked to bear in mind the ages of the children. We are glad to give this information: Thomas 16 years, Joseph 15, Mary 10, Benita 7, and George 2; also the father and mother.

Social Club Meets With Mrs. C. E. Neisler

On Thursday evening Mrs. C. E. Neisler was the charming hostess of the Social Club.

Lovely arrangements of chrysanthemums were used in the party rooms where four tables of rock were played.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. M. L. Plonk, Mrs. U. H. Arthur and Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt served a salad and sweet course with tea.

Mrs. R. L. Mauney was presented the high score prize and Mrs. L. C. Parsons was the low score winner.

The leading project of Cashiers Home Demonstration Club members in Jackson county during the past few years has been the establishment of a community health center which devotes its entire time to preventive medicine, according to Mary E. Johnson, county home demonstration agent for the State College Extension Service.

Know Your Teacher

(Ed. Note: One of a series of articles written by the Public Relations Committee of the Kings Mountain chapter of the North Carolina Education Association.)

MISS LAURA BELL

You have possibly seen her—quiet, modest, retiring, altruistic — making her way either by bus or walking from East School, West School, Park Grace, and Central to meet her Bible pupils.

Miss Laura Bell, a 1946 graduate of Erskine College, taught two years in Clinton, South Carolina, before coming to Kings Mountain. This is her second year as Bible teacher here in the city schools.

In her spare moments, you may see her crocheting or reading and then surprise you by saying, "Surely you would like to see a good game of basketball or better still, play one." And she does too.

Her only brother is a ministerial student at Erskine. When asked why she decided to become a Bible teacher, her reply was, "With the influence of a minister father and a school-teacher mother, how can you help yourself?"

Miss Bell is a native of Huntersville; but to the people of Kings Mountain, she says "You have been most cordial and co-operative." And our reply is, "How can we help ourselves?"

Since she is a frequent visitor in the various churches and civic organizations, Miss Bell's influence is felt throughout our town.

Broiler chick placements in the Chatham and Wilkes commercial broiler-producing areas during the week ending November 26 declined by about 12,000 birds. Placements in the Chatham area totaled 220,000 while the Wilkes area reported a total of 107,000.

Marlene Weir Feted On 7th Birthday

Mrs. S. S. Weir, Jr., entertained Saturday afternoon at three o'clock honoring her daughter, Marlene, on her 7th birthday.

Much gaiety was enjoyed on the lawn. The games were directed by Darlene Weir and Kathryn Ware. Children were invited into the living room where other games and contests were played. Prizes were awarded Carolyn Pinnix, Georganna Moss, Lillian Lewis, and B. B. Hoyle.

As the children entered the dining room the center of attraction was the large two tiered birthday cake iced in pink and blue surrounded with bright colored balloons, garlands of pink and blue crepe paper extended from the chandelier to the corners of the table. On the buffet pink candles nestled among mistletoe. Each child was given a pink plastic basket filled with Christmas candy.

Pictures were made of the group. They sang, "Happy Birthday" to Marlene. Mrs. Weir was assisted by Mrs. Hubert Davidson and Mrs. Lila Ervin in serving ice cream, cake and a fruit drink to the thirty-five children who attended the party.

After the refreshments much merriment ensued as the lovely gifts were unwrapped by the honoree.

Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt Ace Of Club Hostess

Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt was hostess to the Ace of Clubs Bridge Club on Thursday afternoon. Artistic arrangements of bronze and white chrysanthemums were used in the hall and music room. When the guests arrived, covers were laid and a delicious dessert course with coffee was served.

After bridge was enjoyed, Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., received the high score prize and Mrs. Carl Mauney second high.

Mrs. Booth Gellespie and Mrs. Hayne Blackmer were invited guests.
