Birthday Party Given Mary Ann Beam

Miss Mary Ann Beam was the recipient of a lovely party Thursday night when her mother, Mrs. B. F. Beam entertained forty of her little friends as a special courtesy on her birthday.

Yuletide decorations were carried out in the living room, dining room and den. Christmas contests and games were heartily entered into by the group.

After the games the children were invited into the dining room. The table was overlaid with a lace cloth the central decoration being the large birthday cake decorated with red rosebuds and candles. Mrs. H. H. Harrill, Miss Bobbie Simmons assisted Mrs. Beam in serving Santa Claus cookies, ice cream and punch.

Special guests were Mrs. Claud Rhyne, Mary Ann's teacher, and Miss Elizabeth Hunt, her scout leader.

Many attractive gifts were left by the guests present.

Mrs. Shuford Kirby W. M. S. Hostess

The W. M. S. of Second Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Shuford Kirby Thursday night, Dec. 1 for their regular meeting. Nine members were present. One new member was welcomed.

The meeting was opened by Scripture read by Mrs. Lillie Mae Styers followed by Mrs. Minnie Wright leading in prayer.

Mrs. T. F. Ware gave a very interesting talk on "Christ is the Answer," after which Mrs. Henry Carroll led in prayer. Mrs. I. W. Ledford dismissed the meeting with prayer.

At the conclusion of the meeting Christmas gifts were exchanged.

The hostess, Mrs. Kirby, assisted by Mrs. I. W. Ledford served a delicious salad course.

The Lottie Moon Week of Prayer will be observed Monday night at the home of Mrs. Fred King and Tuesday night with the W. M. S. of Temple Baptist church.

Hi-Lo Club Meets With G. E. Bridges

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Glee Edwin Bridges was given a party air Saturday night with the clever arrangements of white glads, when they were hosts to the members of the Hi-Lo bridge club.

Several progressions of bridge was played with Mrs. J. C. Bridges and Sam Stallings carrying off high score awards.

Chocolate eclairs, assorted nuts and coffee was served during the refreshment period.

McE. Pietertje Ormsby, one of the five Holstein bulls in the artificial dairy breeding stud at State College has been classified "excellent" by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Belk Employees Hold Annual Banquet

A gala event at the Country Club Wednesday night was the annual banquet given for the employees of Belk's Department Store.

A yuletide atmosphere predominated the evening's festivities. Down the entire length of the long table in the dining room was ivy entwined with spruce and nandina berries potted plants were also used in the room decorations. A tempting four-course turkey dinner was served the twenty guests present.

Mr. Hilton Ruth, popular manager, was toast master for the occasion and in his charming and witty manner, made all feel welcome and kept the group in gay spirits.

As this is the beginning of the holiday season Pep talks on salesmanship and sales promotion were made.

Names were drawn for the exchange of gifts at the annual Christmas party to be held during Christmas week.

Sprightly conversation and good comradeship were enjoyed and the guests were reluctant to leave.

Mrs. L. W. Hamrick Hostess To Fortnighters

The private dining room of the Country Club was the scene of a pretty party Friday afternoon when Mrs. L. W. Hamrick entertained members of the Fortnighters Club.

Enchanting arrangements were achieved with red and green coleslaw and dish gardens. The Christmas colors were also carried out in the tallies and refreshments.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. Jim Smith was presented the high score prize for the afternoon games.

The hostess served a congealed cranberry salad, hot ham biscuits, pickles, cookies and coffee.
