Mrs. Martin Harmon's Pupils Give Recital

Mrs. Martin Harmon presented her piano pupils in a recital at her home Thursday night, December 15.

Dickie Hunnicutt played "Bells Are Ringing," a melody from Beethoven's Ninth Symphony; "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," and "The Yellow Butterfly."

Before playing Judy Cooper recited the poem descriptive of her section, "The Mischievous Elf," by Bernice Bentley.

Iris Patterson played Bach's "Two-Part Invention No. 14," "Waltz in C Sharp Minor," by Chopin, and "Prelude No. III," by George Geishwin.

Following the recital a dessert course of ice cream and cookies was served to the students and their parents.

Bible Class Hold Christmas Party

Members of the Gleaners class of the First Baptist church held their annual Christmas party at the Woman's Club house Thursday night. Mesdames B. N. Barnes, J. B. Falls, Bill Simpson, and Howard Ware were co-hostesses for the occasion.

Seasonal decorations were used to inspire the Christmas theme. After a short devotional period, Mrs. Rowell Lane presided over the business. Mrs. Abie Martin gave the report from the visiting by the group captains.

Mrs. Gwinn Whisnant was in charge of the games.

Gifts which members had brought to the party were exchanged, also gifts were brought to send a needy family. Mrs. Lane in behalf of the class presented Mrs. Ledford, the teacher, a piece of silver in her pattern.

The class presented Mrs. Lane a gift in appreciation for making the year books.

The G. F. Lattimores, Jr. Feted By L. A. Kisers

Mr. and Mrs. L. Arnold Kiser were most gracious hosts Saturday night entertaining young married couples to make up four tables for bridge. Mrs. G. F. Lattimore, junior, was the inspiration for the lovely affair.

The Kiser home was aglow with Christmas cheer. In the living room silver and blue decorations were effectively used. In the den red and green were used with a decorated Christmas tree to inspire the Yuletide spirit.

When tables were appointed for refreshments each held a blue burning candle in a silver holder. A salad and sweet course with Russian tea and nuts were served.

Mrs. J. C. Bridges was winner of the high score prize for ladies. David Neill received high for men.

The honoree, Mrs. Latimore, was given silver in her bridal pattern. Mrs. David Neill and Mrs. Robert Neill, recent brides, were also remembered with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Lattimore, Sr., were invited for refreshments.

Junior G. A.'s Meet With Kathryn Ware

Miss Kathryn Ware was hostess Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ware, entertaining the Junior Girls Auxillary of the Baptist church.

The program was on Foreign Missions. Each girl brought her Little Moon Christmas offering. Mrs. Barrett, the leader, prepared the program.

Marilyn Tessener presided over the business. Fifteen members and the two leaders were present.

The hostess served hot cocoa and cookies. The group sang Christmas carols after the meeting.

The last two stars on the U. S. flag were added July 4, 1912—for New Mexico and Arizona.

ALEXANDER'S APPLIANCES & GROCERIES

There is a spirit that pervades our world during this season. You feel it in the joy of giving gifts . . . in the offering of wishes to those around you . . . in the hymns and carols. It is especially necessary, in these times, to spread this spirit to all . . . to attend the church of our choice and pray that the light of the Lord show us our way once more.

We wish you a full pack of Yuletide joy, with just room enough to squeeze in our greetings.

Thank you, good friends, for your kindly patronage throughout the year. During 1950, we will make every effort to deserve your continued confidence.
