Miss Harmon Bride Of William E. Babb

Miss Betty Jean Harmon and William E. Babb, both of the Beth-Ware community were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in a simple, impressive service held at the parsonage of David's Baptist church with the pastor, the Rev. W. L. McSwain, officiating.

There were no attendants but Miss Joan McSwain played a piano accompaniment as the vows were spoken. The couple entered the parsonage living room together and stood before the decorated mantle which served as an altar. Only members of the two families and a few close friends were present.

The bride, a pretty brunette, wore a lovely suit of ice blue gabardine with white blouse and gloves, other accessories in black, and a white orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Babb is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harmon of the Bethware community, is a graduate of the high school there, and is employed at the Hudson Hosiery mill in Shelby. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Bethware high school, he and the bride both having been graduated there last spring, and is now employed by the Neisler Mills. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd E. Babb, formerly of Bethware but now living at Stanley.

After their return from a short wedding trip the couple will live at their new home in the Bethware section.

Two Are Hostesses At Bridge Party

Mrs. William Ruddock and Miss Avis Warlick entertained at a lovely party Monday night at the Woman's club ushering in the holiday season with companionship and good cheer.

The lounge of the club was decorated in the holiday theme with greenery, candles, and colored bells. Throughout the decorations, the snowman motif was predominant.

Before the progressions of bridge and canasta were begun, the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Gillie Falls and Miss Betty Ballard, served a very colorful and delicious refreshment course of Russian tea and accessories.

When the tallies were totaled, Miss Marian Arthur and Fred McDaniel, Jr., held high scores in bridge, and Miss Bobbie Simmons and C. J. Spivey won second high prizes. Henry Neisler won high score for canasta. Miss Sue Ruddock claimed the floating prize.

Out of town guests included Misses Sue Ruddock, Mary Virginia Sommers, and Virginia Summers of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lackey, Jr., of Fallston, John Campbell of Shelby and Max Rollins of Grover.

Holiday Dance Given For Younger Crowd

Highlight of the social activities of the week and the first in a series of dances and parties to be held by the "Younger Crowd," was the dance given Tuesday night in the Woman's Club by Misses Ann Mayes and Barbara Jean Gault.

Decorations suggestive of the Christmas season were used throughout the club house. A gala effect was achieved in one end of the ball room with the large Christmas tree with Santy in the top and the many colored lights. Red candles and greens were used in pleasing groups on the piano and tables.

The large punch bowl nestled in a mound of mistletoe surrounded with trays of fancy Christmas cookies.

The open fire in the lounge gave a cheery glow over the multi-colored balls and colored Christmas lights.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mauney and Miss Helen Hay were chaperones for the gala event.

More than two hundred young people from Kings Mountain and surrounding towns enjoyed the first large dance of the Yule season.

Y. W. A. Girls Give Christmas Party

The Y. W. A. Girls of the First Baptist church held their annual Christmas Party at the home of their leader, Mrs. W. B. Logan Monday night. Games were played and refreshments served. Climaxing the evening's activities was reached, when the members gathered around the Christmas tree under which they had placed many beautifully wrapped gifts. The honor guest of the meeting was a little four-year-old girl, the group were playing Santy too.

The little girl was told the gifts were for her and she was to open them. The radiance that beamed from her eyes and the exclamations of Ah! and Oh! were proof to the girls the gifts were appreciated.

Mrs. Al Dunn the leader for the Y. W. A. Girls next year was present.

The Logan home was tastefully decorated with the traditional Christmas decorations.

Mr. And Mrs. Anthony Fete Couples Club

Members of the Couples Club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony on Friday night. The home was in a festive mood with bright Christmas decorations.

Tables were attractive with red cloths centered with a white star holding a red candle. A dessert course was served.

When scores were compared at the close of the progressions it was revealed Mrs. Sam Suber, Jr., was high score winner for ladies, with W. S. Fulton, Jr., carrying off high score for the men.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., were invited to play with the members.

We join in wishing you a Yuletide filled with song and good cheer. Merry Christmas
