Mr. And Mrs. L. Parton Give Yule Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Parton in Gastonia was the scene of a lovely Christmas party on Saturday night. Gifts were placed under the Christmas tree, and the group enjoyed refreshments consisting of open-faced sandwiches shaped as stars, cookies in many Christmas shapes, corn cheezies, hot Russian tea, and other sandwiches. Each person present then opened a nice gift, and little Linda Parton was the recipient of many birthday gifts. A delightful social hour was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Yelton, and Douglas Yelton.

MYF Has Christmas Program In Chapel

Last Sunday morning the Youth Chapel overflowed as the Senior MYF met for a Christmas program. The spotlight was turned on a drawing done with black ink on blue poster board by Patricia Prince, which was a copy of the painting, "The Arrival at Bethlehem," showing the scene at the inn. The picture was placed on a white cloth which covered a large bulletin board. The voices which came from behind the board were those of the reader, Jean Lynch, who interpreted the picture; Joseph, Bill Allen; Mary, Betty Cash; and the hostess at the inn, Dorothy Smith. The group joined in Christmas carols, with Barbara Grantham at the piano.

A special program is being arranged by Dorothy Smith and Jean Cash to be presented in the youth chapel Christmas Sunday at ten. The lesson will be about Christmas, too.

Mrs. R. E. Clark Entertains Circle

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Frances Garrison circle of the A. R. P. church met with Mrs. Robert E. Clark at her home.

The meeting was opened with prayer, after which Mrs. E. W. Neal gave an interesting Christmas program, assisted by Mrs. Orr Weir.

Seventeen were present including three visitors which the circle was so glad to welcome.

Following the regular business session the hostess served delicious refreshments assisted by Mrs. Carolyn C. Blanton, Corietta McDaniel and Marjorie Jolley.

Gifts were then exchanged, after which the group sang Christmas carols.

The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the occasion.

Turkey Dinner Fetes Policemen - Firmene

Dr. J. E. Anthony, G. A. Bridges and L. Arnold Kiser entertained the firemen and policemen with a dinner at the Country Club Saturday.

This is an annual affair and looked forward to by the members.

Short talks were made by Dr. J. E. Anthony, G. W. King and N. M. Farr.

Lively conversation was carried on while they enjoyed the turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

S. A. Mauneys Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary On Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday evening, December 20th, with a family dinner at the Kings Mountain Country Club. The dining tables were decorated with gold-colored magnolia sprays and foliage, and in the center of the table was a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake, with yellow candles and yellow roses on each side.

Mr. and Mrs. Mauney were married on December 20, 1899, at Concordia Lutheran church, Conover. Mrs. Mauney was the former Anna Isenhower, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Isenhower of Conover. Mr. Mauney is the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mauney of Kings Mountain. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Mauney came to Kings Mountain to live and have lived here ever since, where

Mr. Mauney has been actively connected with the Kings Mountain Manufacturing Company, of which he is now president.

Mr. and Mrs. Mauney's six children and their families were all present at the dinner: Mr. Aubrey Mauney and Dr. Jacob Mauney of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Juanita M. Wolf of Charlotte, Mrs. Julia M. Barnes of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Frances M. Lohr of Raleigh and Mrs. Martha Lou M. Fisher of Rockwell. All twelve grandchildren were present. Other guests were the Reverend and Mrs. W. H. Stender of Kings Mountain, their three children and Mrs. Stenders' mother, Mrs. Robert McDougall of Columbia, S. C.

The children presented Mr. and Mrs. Mauney with a gold china tray, pitcher and six goblets, and received from their parents gold-framed

Mrs. Alexander Wins Shelvador In Contest

Mrs. Charles Alexander has been adjudged winner of the Kings Mountain Crosley contest, and has been awarded a new 1950 Shelvador refrigerator according to Lewis Hovis, manager of Community Implement & Supply Co., Inc.

The contest was conducted during the month of November and was a part of the nation-wide Crosley "Million Dollar Giveaway" contest.

All local entrants also will have a chance at the national jackpot. Winner is scheduled to be announced around January 1, 1950, Mr. Hovis said.

The contest here was judged by a panel of Kings Mountain citizens, who had difficulty in deciding which entry was the best, it was stated.
