Mission Study Taught By Mrs. Ashburn

The Mission Study held in the ARP church Monday night was taught by Mrs. Paul Ashburn of Statesville. The book for study "Mexico Looks Up" was written by Rev. W. A. Holliday, a missionary in Mexico.

The Mexican theme was carried out in decorations. Prior to the meeting a covered dish supper was served. A long table, in the shape of a "T", was used for decorations. A Mexican sombrero shaped as a cornucopia with fruit was used on one end and on the opposite end was a rock garden filled with cactus and moss.

In the center was a large gourd filled with cactus and rubber plants. Interspersed between were castanets, belts and a variety of Mexican trinkets.

Mrs. J. L. McGill, Mrs. John Gamble and Mrs. Claud Hambricht dressed as Mexican senoritas greeted the guests and helped place the supper.

Following the delightful meal, the group thoroughly enjoyed the study taught by Mrs. Ashburn.

On a wall back of the speakers table was a huge map of Mexico and a colorful sombrero. Three informative posters and water color paintings depicting Mexican characters added interest. Mexican pottery and baskets, used in vantage points around the room, added color novelty to the decor theme.

Breakfast Honoring Mrs. Paul Ashburn

As a special compliment to Mrs. Paul Ashburn of Statesville Mrs. J. L. McGill entertained with breakfast Tuesday morning.

Cornshuck mats were used on the dining table in the center was a three tiered container of California Bratton pottery in chartreuse green and filled with greenery, grapes and lemons. The meal was served in pottery dishes on individual wooden trays and consisted of scalloped half grapefruit, filled with sections of oranges and grapefruit topped with toasted salted pecans and cherries. Apple rings with accompanying pastries of sausage, Bear Creek strawberry preserves from Newfort Farms in Oregon were served with hot biscuits. Coffee was served in square Bratton California pottery cups.

Those enjoying Mrs. McGill's hospitality were Mrs. Ashburn, Mrs. W. L. Pressly, Mrs. J. C. McGill, Mrs. Claud Hambricht and Miss Ava Ware.

Mrs. Barkley Entertains Open Gate Garden Club

Mrs. I. G. Barkley entertained members of the Open Gate Garden club at the January meeting held on Wednesday afternoon. The home was very attractive, with greenery and potted plants used in decorations. Thirteen members were present.

The president, Mrs. Clyde Kerns, presided over the business session. The club decided to purchase one hundred bulbs to be planted at the Kings Mountain hospital and agreed to contribute 100 percent to the State Garden club project of the Elizabethan garden at Manteo. The resignation of Mrs. Wendell Phifer was accepted with regrets. It was also decided to increase the membership to nineteen members.

Mrs. Baxter Wright, who had charge of the program for the afternoon, talked in an entertaining and informative manner on "Color in the Home".

Members brought specimens of potted plants. Two beautiful arrangements of green foliage and berries were brought by Mrs. Mack Gantt and Mrs. Barkley.

The hostess served a delicious salad and dessert plate with coffee.
