Miss Faye Elizabeth Caldwell Married Sunday To Mr. Dorus Clay Passeur, Jr.

Miss Faye Elizabeth Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Theodore Caldwell became the bride of Dorus Clay Passeur, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorus Clay Passeur Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock in a formal candle-light ceremony at the Grace Methodist church.

Oregon ferns were massed across the altar, to form the background for the wedding vows. Lighted cathedral tapers forming an arch in front of the ferns and baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and ferns completed the decorations.

Rev. B. W. Lefler, pastor of the church officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Margaret Huffstetter, organist and Mrs. Clark Williams soloist.

The usher groomsmen were John Caldwell, Billy Caldwell, Ray Pearson and Bill McGinnis. Furman Wilson was best man.

Mrs. Harry Hughes, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a dress of Nile green taffeta featuring a full skirt, low neckline outlined with ruffles. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers.

The bride and groom entered the church together. The bride had chosen a dress of nylon net, fitted bodice, long tapering sleeves and full skirt. Her finger tip veil of net was worn off face caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Prayer book covered with a baby's breath and centered with a white orchid.

After the ceremony the bridal couple greeted the guests in the church foyer and left soon afterwards for a wedding trip to the mountains of western Carolina.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of navy blue with white accessories.

Upon their return they will reside on Stone street.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Caldwell wore a suit of navy blue with pink accessories and a corsage of carnations.
