House And Garden Club
Hears Mrs. Gilbreath

Mrs. Frank Summers delightfully entertained the members of the House And Garden Club for their regular April meeting. Mrs. Paul Neisler introduced Mrs. Gilbreath from the Blue Door, Spartanburg, S. C., who spoke on the Art of Decorating. Her talk was most interesting and suitably illustrated by the display of varied color and design. At the conclusion of her talk an opportunity was given to present questions in regard to decorating. Arrangements for the afternoon were spring flowers. One was lovely pink blossoms in a low black bowl. Bright yellow tulips with greenery were used in a low bowl on the console. During the business hour Mrs. L. Arnold Klier and Mrs. Sam Davis were elected to attend the State meeting in Raleigh in May. Mrs. Gilbreath invited the members to attend the Spartanburg Flower Show, April 30 and May 1. Mrs. Jay Patterson reminded the club of the Floral Fair in the fall and asked that each one begin making plans for the entries. An invitation was extended to the club to attend the showing of the Model Home in Newton in May. Mrs. P. W. Ferguson of Atlanta was Mrs. Summers guest for the afternoon. Mrs. Summers served a delicious dessert course with coffee and nuts. Clusters of violets on each plate added an attraction. At the conclusion of the meeting everyone was invited into the Summer's garden to see the beautiful flowering trees. From Mrs. Summers' meeting most of the members went to the Woman's Club to view the film on the care of Gardens and Roses. Each person present was given a Beauty Plan for the yards and a sample can of Endopest. The film was presented by a representative of the Vigoro Company. The showing had been arranged by Mrs. Glee Edwin Bridges. Dr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons and children of Lumberton spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Parsons.

Peggy Gunnells, Linda Rhea Honored On Birthdays

Peggy Jean Gunnells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Gunnells and Linda Rhea, daughter of Mrs. Grady Rhea, were entertained on their fourteenth birthday at a party given by Mrs. Gunnells at the Gunnells' home at the Mar-grace. When guests arrived, games were played on the lawn. Later they were invited into the Gunnells' home for refreshments. Two lovely birthday cakes gaily decorated in pink and white were placed in the center of the table. Individual cakes were served with ice cream and cold beverages. Candy was given as favors to the guests. Those present to enjoy the delightful event with the honorees were: Glinda Spake, Maxine Bumgardner, Fatsy Foster, Lyvonne Lindsey, Judy Medlin, Jo Bridges, Don Bridges, and Mrs. J. C. Bridges. Peggy and Linda received many lovely and useful gifts.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew Allen, of Kings Mountain, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lula Grace, to Raymond Augustus Talbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Floyd Talbert, of Clover, S. C. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. W. L. Ramsour Fortnighter Hostess

Mrs. W. L. Ramsour entertained members of the Fortnighter's Club in the private dining room at the Country Club Friday afternoon. Lilies, irises and pansies were featured in colorful bouquets throughout the club parlors. Several progressions of bridge were played with Mrs. Arnold Klier carrying off top honors. A salad and sweet course was served during the progressions. Mrs. Paul Neisler and Mrs. Carl Mauney were invited to play with the members.

Supreme Forest Circle To Attend Meet

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle held its regular meeting Friday, April 11, in the Woodmen hall. Mrs. Sue Moorhead, National Representative and District manager, was present. Plans were made to attend the district log rolling in Shelby May 10. Plans were also discussed for a joint meeting of the circle and W. O. W. to be held May 6, in the local grove.

Charlotte Garden Tour Schedule Is Announced

CHARLOTTE — Spring has come again to Charlotte gardens, and again twelve of them will be open to the public from two to six, Saturday and Sunday afternoon the last two weekends of April. The tour is sponsored by the Charlotte Garden Club. Tickets are a dollar each. They can be bought at any of the gardens, and are good for both weekends. There is no charge for children under twelve. The gardens have been chosen to show every type of planting and design from the small back yard to the estate. April 19-20: Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Franklin—1141 Langanore Place; Col. and Mrs. Lawrence Simpson—1117 Queens Rd; Dr. and Mrs. Robert McKay—444 Eastover Road; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clarkon—"Winghaven" (Bird Sanctuary)—248 Ridgewood Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Guerry Slaughter—1248 Morningside Drive; Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Baker—"Spare Moments"—2009 Queens Road. Within the walls of Winghaven are many small gardens. Herbs will be found in one, roses in another, and along the walks the late azaleas will be in bloom. Spare Moments is an example of the amount of interesting plants material that can be fitted into a small area that is also planned for privacy and outdoor living. April 26-27: Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Sutton, Sharon View Road; Mr. and Mrs. George King—"Wir-y

Legion Auxiliary Met With Mrs. Rhea

The American Legion Auxiliary met Thursday night with Mrs. M. Rhea. Easter flowers were used to decorate the home. Mrs. Dickie Tate, program leader for the month presented Rev. T. L. Cashwell who spoke on "Child Welfare". Delightful refreshments were served. Rev. and Mrs. Cashwell were special guests of the hostess. Hill, 2750 Dunn Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Hargett—2601 Belvedere Ave.; Mrs. W. B. Sullivan—435 Hermitage Road; Mrs. G. G. Slaughter—2419 Sherwood Ave.; Miss Elizabeth Lawrence—348 Ridgewood Ave. A long driveway between evergreens and flowering trees from the Sutton's entrance gates to the house on top of the hill. The wide lawns are bordered by deep flower beds with a back ground of flowering shrubs. From the terrace there is a view of the lake, the guest house, and the wide sweep of the woods beyond. Mr. Slaughter's garden is a model of a small garden done in the modern manner with economy of space, and a minimum of upkeep. With the help of a laborer she carried out the landscape architect's design herself, building the lovely wall of old brick, the little pool, and the raised flower borders with brick retaining walls that surround the paved court.
