Stag Dinner Given By L. J. Morris, Jr.

Lovell Jackson Morris, Jr. of Signal Mountain, Tenn., whose wedding to Miss Virginia Plonk took place Sunday afternoon, entertained his groomsmen with a T-bone steak dinner in the private dining room in the Cleveland Hotel, Shelby, Sunday at one o'clock. A delicious four course dinner was served.

At this time Mr. Morris presented gifts to his attendants. Those making up the party were: Mr. L. J. Morris, Sr., R. L. Plonk, Dr. Thornton, M. L. Harmon, Jr., Robert Hedges, J. O. Plonk, and W. L. Plonk, Jr.

Miss Virginia Plonk Bride Party Honoree

Mrs. Ertle Powers entertained with three tables of bridge and one of rook on Thursday afternoon as a special courtesy to Miss Virginia Plonk, a much feted bride-elect of the week.

The party rooms were charmingly arranged with immense bouquets of mixed pastel shaded flowers. Interesting progressions of bridge and rook were played with Mrs. Hal Plonk carrying off top prize in bridge and Mrs. Hal Ward the most successful player in rook.

Later in the afternoon covers were laid and the hostess was assisted in serving a frozen salad and sweet course with iced tea.

The honoree was remembered with a gift in crystal and upon her arrival had been presented a corsage of pink carnations and gypsophylla.

Margrace Woman's Club Holds Monthly Meeting

The Margrace Club held its monthly meeting at the club house last Friday evening. Mrs. Buddy Medlin conducted the devotional and Mrs. C. W. Falls presided. At the conclusion of the business session, the hostesses, Mesdames Ben Horton, Floyd Gates and Ray Mullinax, served a pretty refreshment plate consisting of potato salad, wafers, Spanish cake with whipped cream and an iced drink.

Friendship Class Met In Brackett Home

The Friendship Class of Grace Methodist Church held an interesting meeting Tuesday night with Mrs. M. C. Brackett, Mrs. Ruth Vickers was co-hostess. "I love to tell the Story" was the opening song, this was followed with prayer by Mrs. L. P. Price. The group sang, "Open my Eyes that I may see." A responsive reading on the Bible was led.

Mrs. Dan Huffstetler was the winner in the Bible quiz. Following the business meeting the hostess served congealed fruit salad, with sandwiches pickles, crackers, cakes and punch.

Cake Cutting Held For Plonk - Morris Party

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Plonk were hosts Saturday evening at a pretty cake-cutting honoring their daughter, Miss Virginia Plonk, and her fiancé, L. J. Morris, Jr. The home was decorated throughout for the occasion with beautiful floral arrangements, in the living room white, cream and red glads were used with charming effect, mixed arrangements of gladioli and larkspur were used in the gift room. The central decoration of the dining table was the large four tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature figures of the bride and groom. Extending from the cake were the fortune ribbons which held the wedding cymbals.

Punch was served in the solarium by Mrs. Stokes Wright and Mrs. Joe Evans from a table decorated with daisies, babies breath and on the opposite end a cluster of magnolias.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Patterson greeted guests at the front door. Mr. and Mrs. Packard Elliott of Shelby were in the gift room. After the conventional first piece of cake had been cut by the bride and groom, the cake was cut and served by Miss Martha Plonk. Mrs. Billy Spake of Shelby and Miss Nan Jean Ganit assisted in the dining room.

The guests were members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests, members of the two families and a few close friends.

O. E. S. Chapter Hear Delegates Report

Kings Mountain Chapter No. 123, Order of the Eastern Star held its regular meeting Friday night, June 13, at 8 o'clock.

The Chapter opened in regular form by the Worthy Matron Louise Martin.

The highlight of the meeting was reports from those who attended Grand Chapter at Raleigh, N. C., last week. Our Worthy Matron reminded

FIRST BIRTHDAY: Johnny Queen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Queen, Bessemer City, Route 2 celebrated his first birthday Saturday, June 7.

Miss Plonk, a graduate of Woman's College, University of North Carolina, will assume her new duties on September 1. She took graduate work at the University of Ohio.

us our Worthy Grands would be with us on August 15.

Mrs. Janie Kincaid asked the Ways and Means committee to meet at her house Monday at 4 o'clock.

It was reported Mrs. Janette Roundtree's daughter was in the Asheville Hospital with polio and would appreciate cards. Also cards were to be sent to Mr. L. C. Hord on York Road who is quite ill.

The meeting closed with the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gault, and Mrs. Sarah Darracott serving delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cookies and punch.

House And Garden Club Hold Annual Luncheon

The House and Garden Club held its annual luncheon meeting Wednesday, June 11, at one o'clock at the Kings Mountain Country Club, the losing team being hostesses.

The lounge was beautifully decorated with an arrangement of yellow and white gladiolus and shasta daisies and a lovely bouquet of mixed summer flowers. In the private dining room the table was most attractive with a large straw hat filled with shasta daisies and bergemot. The place cards were packages of seeds framed as miniature flower prints. The seeds were a gift from Bridges Hardware Company. On one end of the mantel a smaller straw hat was used, filled with garland, daisies and day lilies, and on the other end, there was a small farm scene. After the guests were assembled a delicious three-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney welcomed the winning team with a pert and original poem. Mrs. Arnold Kiser, president, presided and reports were given on the State Convention in Raleigh and on the Inter-Club Council. Mrs. Sam Davis, Chairman of Conservation and Beautification reported that the House and Garden Club had received permission to make Kings Mountain a bird sanctuary. After all pending business was dispensed with Mrs. Kiser turned the meeting over to Mrs. Davis, incoming president, at which time she read her committees for the coming year.
