Miss Dorothy Ann Dodd Wed Thursday To Arthur Lee Jackson In Home Rites

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dodd at Whitwell, Va. was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Arthur Lee Jackson of Kings Mountain and Leaksville, N. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Wood Jackson of Kings Mountain on Thursday, June the nineteenth at four thirty in the afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Dodd, uncle of the bride before an improvised altar of ivy, lighted tapers in candelabras and floor baskets of white gladioli, baby's breath and fern.
 Mrs. Blackwell B. Evans of Richmond, pianist, and Miss Marian Barbour, soloist, presented a musical program which included the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner, Through the Years, Youmans, and I Love Thee, During the vows, Clair de Lune, was played.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace over ice blue satin, the fitted bodice was finished with a mandarin collar and long sleeves and a circular skirt. Her shoulder length veil of French illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of matching lace caught at each side with orange blossoms. She carried a prayer-book centered with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers tied with Stephanotis and lily of the valley.
 Mrs. Robert Wilkerson of Leaksville, her sister's matron of honor, wore a gown of white organza over pale pink taffeta. Her headdress was of pale pink net and taffeta fashioned after that of the bride and she carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers.
 Robert Jackson of Kings Mountain was best man for his brother.
 The bride's mother wore aqua lace with brown and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias. The mother of the groom was attired in navy blue with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.
 Following the ceremony a reception was held. The dining room was decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons, babybreath and carnations. A three tiered wedding cake and lighted tapers in crystal holders centered the bride's table which was covered with an imported lace cloth.
 For travel, the bride wore a suit of white silk shantung with navy cuffs and collar fastened with a rhinestone clip. Her accessories were navy and white and she wore the white orchid from her prayer book. The couple left for a northern wedding trip.
 The bride is a graduate of Longwood college where she was a member of the Cotillion Club and Theta Sigma Upsilon, Social Sorority.
 The groom attended Yale University and was graduated from North Carolina State College.
 After July 6, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be at home on Highland Drive, Leaksville, where the groom holds a position with Fiedcrest Mills, division of Marshall Field and Company.
