Two Injured Near Casar

Lee Devinney of Kings Mountain, route 2, and Forrest Fortenberry of Casar, route 1, suffered multiple bruises and abrasions from a collision which took place Sunday afternoon at the intersection of St. Paul's Church road near Casar.

The car which was driven by T. H. Turner of Morganton, route 6, collided with a 1938 Chevrolet driven by Virgil Maxwell Glover, when Glover is said to have failed to stop when driving into Highway 10.

The two injured are patients in Shelby hospital, where it is said their condition was not serious.

State 4-H Club Week will be held at State College, Raleigh, July 21-26.
