Miss Peggy Mauney Gives Pretty Coca Cola Party

Miss Peggy Mauney entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney on Wednesday morning with a delightful informal coia party as a special courtesy to three brides-elect: Miss Patty Neisler, Miss Betty Falls, Miss Peggy Arthur and Mrs. Bill Klein, a bride, and new comer to Kings Mountain.

The party rooms were charmingly arranged throughout with summer flowers including a predominance of roses.

Guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. B. N. Barnes. Miss Mauney introduced them to her honorees.

In the sun porch Mrs. George Tollison and Miss Shirley Houser served coias from an attractive wheelbarrow. Refreshments were served from a two tiered glass table, the fruit arrangement with ivy entwined around the table made a pretty picture for the lower tier. A lazy Susan with assorted sandwiches, and a crystal tree holding olives and pickles with ivy decoration was used on the top tier. Napkins with an ivy and pine cone design carried out the green and white motif.

Among the eye catchers in the sun room were the lilies floating around on the pool and a large purple and white straw garden hat filled with Queen Ann's Lace and purple zinnias used on the cobbler's bench and a large antique earthen ware jug filled with sun flowers by the fireplace.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney said good-byes to the fifty guests who called during the party hour.

Miss Mauney presented corsages to the honor guests. The corsages were of glamelias each in a different color.
