Miss Frances Huffstetler

Extended Bridal Courtesy

Mrs. Clyde McDaniel, Miss Phyllis Lall and Mrs. E. T. Huffstetler of Shelby entertained Saturday night August 16th with a party and shower for Miss Frances Huffstetler, bride-elect of August. Miss Huffstetler chose a dress of white crinkled nylon for the occasion and a corsage of red carnations gift of the hostesses.

The McDaniel home was made festive with a variety of mixed summer flowers, silver paper wedding bells were hung from the mantel with green and white streamers.

Bridal games were played during the evening with Mrs. H. K. Dixon, Mrs. Forrest Fortenberry, Mrs. Brady Lall and Miss Peggy Dixon winning prizes.

Party plates of open faced bell shaped sandwiches, individual green iced cakes with white wedding bells molded on top, peanuts and iced lime punch were served. The honoree received a variety of pretty and useful gifts from the forty guests present.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Nesica Thackerson, Mrs. George Carr, Mrs. Bertha Greenway of Shelby and Mrs. Bobby Huffstetler of Gastonia, Mrs. Brady Lall and Mrs. Forrest Fortenberry of Grover.

A. R. P. Circle Met

In Goforth Home

Canasta Party Given

For Brides-elect

Misses Barbara Grantham and Sarah Jackson entertained with a pretty planned canasta party Monday night at the Grantham home as a special courtesy to Misses Betty Cash and Doris Jolly, brides-elect, and Mrs. Bobby Cox, a recent bride.

The honorees were presented corsages of white split carnations upon their arrival.

In the living room there was an illuminated arrangement of white pompoms and gladioli reflected on the mantel. In the dining room was a brilliant floating arrangement in a crystal bowl.

Canasta prizes, pine scented note paper was awarded Miss Betty Cash and sachet to Miss Barbara Gault.

Gifts of crystal were presented the honorees.

At refreshment time a frozen dessert was served with lime punch.

Miss Peggy Arthur Honors

Miss Pat Harris At Bridge

Miss Patricia Harris, bride of last Saturday was the inspiration for a lovely dessert bridge party Wednesday night given by Miss Peggy Arthur.

Picturesque arrangements of white gladioli, snap dragons, pink lilies and other mixed flowers were used as decorations throughout the house.

Five tables were appointed when the guests arrived. The bride-elect's place was marked with a china wedding slipper filled with sweet heart roses; the other tables were centered with nosegays of sweetheart roses.

Tallies were also in bridal motif. Lime sherbert, bridal squares, nuts, mints and lime punch were served.

Tables were rearranged for bridge and at the count of tallies it was revealed Mrs. E. B. Harris held high score and Miss Pauline Mauney low score, each were presented attractive prizes.

Miss Harris was remembered with an electric iron from the hostess and Miss Patty Neisler, bride-elect of October, was given salt and pepper shakers in her selected pattern.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. B. Harris, mother of the bride, from Jacksonville, Fla., Miss Ann Stroud, Faison, N. C., Miss Nathalie Ramsaur, Fullerton, Penn., and Miss Sue Ruddock of Charlotte.
