Bridge Party Honoring Mrs. Nelson Bridges

One of the prettiest parties of the week was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. G. E. Bridges and Mrs. J. C. Bridges at the Country Club. The party was planned as a courtesy to Mrs. Nelson Bridges, a recent bride, and guest of the hostesses.

Five tables were placed for bridge in the private dining room which was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums and fruit. One very striking arrangement was achieved with white chrysanthemums and sea grass in a silver container. Back of this were silver candlesticks with white candles. The cornucopia with the fruits and candies also made an entrancing picture.

Mrs. J. B. Simpson received high score prize. Mrs. Billie Fulton was runner-up for second high. The floating prize going to Mrs. Rudy Schenk.

At the conclusion of the games the hostesses served a salad plate with coffee. A sweet course was passed.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Schenk, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bridges and Mrs. Jackie Gamble of Sylacauga, Ala., guest of Mrs. J. N. Gamble.

Miss Kitty Sutton Teaches Mission Course On Africa

Miss Kitty Sutton has just completed teaching a series of studies at Central Methodist Church on Africa.

The collections taken during the week of prayer and self denial will go for the work in Africa.

Members of the WSCS will help with the contributions. One member of the class stated the lessons had been most interesting and instructive and she felt the Dark Continent of Africa should profit by the work being conducted there.

Final Service Held In Present Building

St. Matthew's Lutheran church will worship in the Sunday School auditorium Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The old stage has been rebuilt into a proper chancel, which will accommodate the altar, pulpit, lectern and can be arranged for communion. The chancel and ceiling have been painted. Two class rooms have been fitted for choir rooms, with some radiators changed. The room will provide an acceptable chapel for worship for a year, while a new building is constructed.

Last Sunday an impressive service was held with a large congregation in attendance, when thanksgiving was offered for the 75-year-old building and all those who have worshipped in it.

The sacred vessels were carried in procession to the chapel, which was blessed with solemn ritual.

On Sunday Reformation Day will be observed in sermon and music, commemorating the beginning of the Protestant movement. The Lord's Supper will be offered after the close of the regular worship service.

At 7:30 in the evening the Pastor will again speak on Africa. Light lunch will be served at Luther League at 6 o'clock.

"B" Team Game Set For Stadium Monday

Kings Mountain high school's "B" football team is slated to hit Cherryville's "Jr. Ironmen" here at City Stadium Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The two teams battled at Cherryville last Thursday afternoon. Cherryville coming out on top of a stiff defensive battle 7-0.

The winners score came in the final 40 seconds after Kings Mountain suffered a series of losses to put the ball on their one-yard line with Cherryville in possession.

Beginning a series at about midfield, the Little Mountaineers lost 30 yards in three plays and a fourth down center snap on a punt try was bad, Kings Mountain recovering on the one to set up the tally.

Kings Mountain's "Bees" dropped a two game series to Lincoln earlier in the season.

Legion To Meet Next Thursday

Members of the Kings Mountain National Guard company will present the program at the regular November meeting of Otis D. Green Post 155, the American Legion, to be held at the Legion hall Thursday, November 6, at 7:30 p. m.

The meeting night was changed from Friday to avoid conflict with the Kings Mountain - Shelby high school football game, scheduled for the Shelby park on November 7.

National Guardsmen from the local company, Headquarters & Headquarters Co., 3rd Battalion, 120th Infantry Regiment, will demonstrate and display new items of equipment, including a fluid-drive two-and-one-half ton truck.

All members of the organization are being urged to attend the meeting and to bring a former member or prospective member as a guest.

Regular monthly meeting of the post's executive committee will be held at the Legion Hall on Monday night at 7:30 p. m., Commander Sam Collins has announced.

Community Day To Be Observed

World Community Day will be observed in Kings Mountain, under sponsorship of the Kings Mountain Council of Churchwomen, on Friday, November 7, with a service at 7:30 p. m. at First Presbyterian church.

Theme of the 1952 observance is "Building Lasting Peace".

First observed in 1943, the purpose of the observance is 1) to define Christian responsibility to international relations; 2) to interpret world community in terms of today's situations; and 3) to help churchwomen to understand the United Nations and to support it as an organization through which all mankind can work together toward a just and lasting world peace.

Each year material aid for needy peoples is asked, and the items of clothing particularly desired this year are good used clothing for infants and children up to the age of six years.

An offering will also be taken at the service and is to be earmarked for supplying medicines and vitamins to undernourished children around the world.

The Davidson School choir, under the leadership of Miss McCleod, will be on a program. All friends are asked to attend.

The first successful beet sugar factory in the United States was built at Alvarado, California in 1879.
