Miss Elizabeth Anthony Fetes Home Arts Club

Miss Elizabeth Anthony was a gracious hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of the Home Arts Club at her home on Piedmont Ave. Attractive arrangements of mixed fall flowers and fruit added a pleasing decorative note to the spacious home.

Mrs. W. E. Blakely, president presided during the routine business.

Mrs. J. M. Cooper, program leader presented Miss Alice Averitt, supervisor of teachers for the Kings Mountain Schools, who was guest speaker.

At the close of the program the hostess was assisted in serving a shrimp salad and coffee, passing tart.

Marion Arthur Speaks On Japan To MYF

In a delightful and interesting way, Marion Arthur told a large group of the Sr. MYF of Japan, and her trip there, on Sunday evening at 6:30. The young people are eager to have her return in the near future and show pictures that she made in Japan.

Jake Hord, Ronnie Hord, Miles Hord, Paul Hendricks and Oscar Ware attended the ASTC-ESTC game Saturday at Boone.

Miss Bernice Harrison Tuesday Bridge Hostess

Members of the Bid and Bye Bridge Club and several additional guests met Tuesday night with Miss Bernice Harrison. Yellow chrysanthemums, flower gardens and fruit in copper and bronze containers created a colorful setting for the small tables which were appointed for refreshments, each table held a miniature vase with small yellow chrysanthemums. When all had assembled, the hostess was assisted in serving strawberry shortcake and coffee.

Miss Harrison took the occasion to honor Miss Frances Carroll, bride-elect of Charlotte and Mrs. W. D. Sawyer who is moving this week to Brevard.

Miss Carroll was given a corsage upon her arrival and later a gift of silver in her chosen pattern. Mrs. Sawyer was remembered with a gift. Playing prizes were awarded Mrs. Clavon Kelly for scoring highest in bridge and Mrs. Charles McCarter for receiving the highest score in canasta.

Those playing other than club members were Mrs. McCarter, Mrs. Don Heavner, Mrs. Paul Ham, Misses Barbara Matthews, Frances Carroll, Joan Britt, Dot Fulton, Peggy Cloninger and Kitty Falls.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
— Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Putman announce the engagement of their daughter, Bertha Sue, to Claude Hicks Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Jones. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of this month.

Mrs. H. R. Parton Fetes La Fete Rook Club

A delightful meeting of the La Fete Rook Club was held Tuesday night with Mrs. H. R. Parton. Colorful bowls of autumn flowers and a cherry open fire made a lovely setting for the party.

Tables were laid for refreshments and upon arrival of the guests the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Trot served a congealed salad course with tea, later passing a sweet course.

Rook was played in progressions, at the count of tallies, prizes were presented Mrs. B. A. Murray and Mrs. Fred J. Wright for receiving the two highest scores, Mrs. W. M. Gantt winning the floating prize.

The party was planned as a courtesy to Mrs. B. A. Murray who was celebrating a birthday. At the conclusion of the games members of the club presented Mrs. Murray with an antique china lamp.

Those playing other than members were Mrs. Gantt, Mrs. W. W. Souther, Mrs. B. S. Peeler and Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

MYF Met Monday Night With The Dixon Twins

The Youth Council of the Sr. MYF met Monday night at the home of Jo Ann and Jacob Dixon on Simms Street, with twelve present. The President, Buddy Mayes, called the meeting to order. Devotional were given by Eddie Goforth, Worship Chairman. During the business session the council named the cast for their Christmas play as follows: Father, Bud Mayes; Mother, Jane Ormand; Older Sister, Jean Hicks Her College Friend, Jo Ann Dixon; Older Brother, Eddie Goforth; Teen-age Sister, Mary Alice McDaniel; Younger Brother, Buddy Murray; and Grandmother, Betty Prince. Gene Patterson was named to take care of lighting, and Bill Hudspeth, Youth Councilor, is to be in charge of scenery, to be assisted by Bill Briggs and Bill Bumgardner. All members are to take part, as the youth group since during the play, B. S. Peeler, Jr. is to direct the choir, with Shirley Falls serving as organist. The council voted to ask Eddie Goforth, Worship Advisor, to direct the play. On the advertising committee are Bud Rhea, Teen-age Fanatics, and Joyce Biser.

It was decided that the MYF have a spaghetti supper Dec. 2 to raise money for sponsoring a little boy at the Children's Home. Eddie Goforth and Buddy Mayes are in charge of tickets, which are to be $1 for adults, and $.75 for children. Jane Ormand and Bill Bumgardner are to be in charge of donations of food, and Betty Prince is advertising chairman. All girls are to serve on the cooking and serving, while boys are to set up tables and wash dishes.

Buddy Murray gave a good report on the attendance contest, which ends Christmas. Mary Alice McDaniel reported the MYF Fund and urged each member to contribute. Plans were laid for evening programs during November. Bernice Whisnant is to speak to the group next Sunday evening on "Working together for Brotherhood."

In conclusion, the group was served cokes, pimento cheese sandwiches, peanutbutter toasties and candy. The meeting adjourned with the MYF benediction.
