Linda Darnell Stewart Celebrates Birthday

Miss Linda Darnell Stewart was the inspiration of a party Saturday afternoon given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stewart at their home. The social event was honoring Miss Stewart on her eleventh birthday anniversary.

Games were played throughout the afternoon with prizes being awarded the winners.

Mrs. Delbert Jackson and Miss Annie Mae Sellers assisted the hostess in serving birthday cake, cookies, delicate party sandwiches and drinks.

Those sharing the happy occasion with the honoree were Gary Dean Stewart, Joyce Ann Childers, Brenda Jackson, Patsy Smith, Dorothy Bolin and Vickie Jackson.

Mrs. Virginia Hamrick Entertains With Party

Mrs. Virginia Hamrick recently entertained a number of friends in Anderson, S. C. The affair was planned as a surprise birthday party for her aunt, Mrs. Ester Nodine, formerly of Kings Mountain.

The home of Mrs. Nodine was gayly decorated with fall flowers and many lighted candles. In the center of the large living room was a table holding the three tiered birthday cake, which was cut and served with coffee and punch.

Dancing, singing and special piano music were used in entertaining.

The honoree received many beautiful gifts.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mrs. John Edgar Garrett of Burlington announces the engagement of her daughter, Sarah Carolyn of Durham and Burlington to Dr. Ladd Watts Hamrick, Jr. of Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hamrick of Boiling Springs. The wedding will take place January 3 at Front Street Methodist Church in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Hamrick were former citizens of Kings Mountain.

Thursday Book Club Met With Mrs. J. O. Plonk

The November meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club was held with Mrs. J. O. Plonk
