Mrs. Hambright Hostess To Twin Table Bridge Club

Mrs. Claude Hambright elegantly entertained members of the Twin Table Bridge Club Tuesday night.

Very attractive bouquets of seasonal flowers artistically designed and arranged created a scene of floral beauty for the social event.

After several very animated games of bridge, scores were compared and prizes presented Mrs. P. D. Herndon and Mrs. H. C. Mays for holding the two highest scores.

During the progressions the hostess assisted by her daughter, Jane, served coffee and pecan pie garnished with ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel Wednesday Bridge Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr. were charming hosts Wednesday night to members of the King of Hearts club and four additional guests, Miss Marion Arthur and W. P. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr. The home was attractively decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums.

After three progressions of bridge, scores were tallied and it was revealed Miss Arthur and Mr. Fulton were the recipients of the top score prizes.

At the conclusion of the games, a party plate was served with coffee.

Two Are Hostesses For Methodist Circle No. 8

Circle No. 8 of Central Methodist Church met Monday night in the home of Mrs. Hillard Black with Mrs. James Cloninger as co-hostess.

Mrs. James Dickey presented the Bible study from Philipians 4:4-10. The group sang two songs "We Gathered Together" and "Come Ye Thankful People, Come".

Mrs. Sam Stallings gave the program on "Fruits for Evangelism".

During the business it was decided to help a needy family for Christmas. Mrs. James Dickey asked the circle to meet with her in December.

During the social hour, the hostesses served refreshments to the thirteen members present.
