Juniors Play Here Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday At City Stadium

Hit Morganton Friday, Cherryville Saturday; Charlotte, Shelby Next

Kings Mountain's American Legion juniors are scheduled to continue first round play here at City Stadium with games Friday and Saturday nights against Morganton and Cherryville.

On Monday night, Kings Mountain is slated to be hosts to Charlotte and on Tuesday night Shelby comes to town.

Coach Hal Dedmon's nine was scheduled at City Stadium last night (Wednesday) against Gastonia.

Going into Wednesday's encounter, the local nine had failed to produce a run in state competition. In two pre-season practice games with the Fort Mill, S. C., Juniors, Coach Dedmon's crew scored 20 runs in dropping both contests as majority of the players saw action.

On Tuesday night at Charlotte, Kings Mountain lost the third game in a row in state play, Charlotte's juniors winning by 16 to 0. Kings Mountain lost to Shelby, on June 2, by 20-0 and to Hickory, on June 4, by 9-0.

Shelby and Hickory remained undefeated Wednesday morning, the only clubs of the eight teams in Area 4 with perfect records.

Tuesday's game at Charlotte was originally scheduled for Griffith Park but was switched to Richard Field, on the other side of town, after the club arrived for the game.

Kings Mountain went to Asheville last Saturday night but the game was rained out a half-hour before game time.

In the Hickory game here last Thursday night, Lefty Albert Anderson got off to a bad start, giving up three runs in the opening frame. He settled down to pitch three scoreless innings but weakened in the fifth to allow three more and was relieved by Earl Marlowe, Kings Mountain got only two hits off Jim Colbert and left only three men on during the game to exhibit a very weak hitting attack.

Bobby Wilson, center fielder, and Palmer Short, of Bessemer City, shortstop, got the only hits off Colbert, who sent 15 mountaineers down swinging.

Hickory got eight hits, which combined with 11 walks and six errors afield to aid the Hickory cause.

Every year North Carolina farmers lose enough money because of plant diseases to build 10,000 new farm homes.

MORE ABOUT Cash Lease Theatres

Charlie Cash came to Kings Mountain a year later and the Cash Brothers leased the Imperial, operating it until 1937.

In 1935, they opened the Dixie Theatre. The building was constructed and is still owned by the W. L. Plonk Estate, while the Cash Brothers own interior fixtures and projection equipment.

In 1943, the Victory Theatre at Cramerton was added to the chain, and in 1944 the Gaston at Mt. Holly.

The fourth unit, the Holly at Mt. Holly, was added in 1945 and the handsome new Joy Theatre was opened in 1949.

David Cash said he and his brother were leasing the chain due to curtailed box office admissions, which he attributed to numerous causes, among them the impact of television and the high federal excise tax on admissions.
