El-Bethel-Bethware News (Mrs. Leonard Gamble)

EL-BETHEL - BETHWARE August 24 - A delicious barbecue sponsored by the officials of the Bethware Community Fair, was given free to the sponsors and exhibitors at 6 p. m. Wednesday afternoon at the school house. At this time the premium book was given to each one present. The fair will open September 16 and run through the 19. Managers and officers are very busy with plans to make this year's fair the best yet.

Friday, September 21st, the Women's Home Demonstration Club met and enjoyed a picnic on the picnic grounds of Earl Morris which is near the school house. After the delicious picnic, Mrs. Frank Herndon directed the group in some games which were enjoyed very much. Next month the group will meet with Mrs. Fred Anthony.

Miss Joyceceelyn Stevens of Georgia visited Miss Lois Gamble here Monday. Members of David's Baptist church are having their parsonage painted, re-screened and the floors re-sanded before the new pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Walker and daughter move in. They hope to move by September 1st.

Fourth quarterly conference was held Sunday at 3 p. m. at El-Bethel church. Rev. J. C. Kirby, D. S., was in charge. A large crowd was present. Friday night at Bethware high school the senior class sponsored an all night singing. There were four quartets present and the group enjoyed some good singing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pheagin were honored Sunday at their home here by their children, grandchildren and other relatives when they met at their home and celebrated their birthdays with a picnic lunch.

Mrs. Dale Volbrach spent last week in Raleigh attending the Home Economic short course held there. Saturday night at 7:30 p. m. "The Golden Link" Sunday School class of El-Bethel met at the home of Mrs. Frank Goforth and enjoyed a social hour. Those with birthdays were honored with a gift. Games and contests were enjoyed after which refreshments were served.

The M. Y. F. of El-Bethel will meet Friday night for a social and weiner roast at the shoals. All members are urged to be present. Mrs. Wayne Ware, of Miami, Florida, and small son arrived here Saturday to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Key Harmon.

Mrs. Lonnie Butler is sick and confined to bed here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Butler. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gamble had as their visitors last Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Falls of Florida and Wade Falls, of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wise attended the Wise reunion at Lincolnton Sunday.

Most people have begun to pick cotton here in the community this week.

and SOCIAL SECURITY By Leola M. Byerly, Field Rep. Gastonia Social Security Office

Miss Margaret H. Lowder, manager of the local social security office, reminds no exemption for work performed by temporary or part-time employees if the services performed are in connection with a "covered" trade or business. Most trades and businesses are now covered.

by social security. A prospective employee should be sure that his name and social security number on his job application are exactly as they appear on his social security card. This will go a long way toward preventing incorrect information on the employer's social security tax reports.

Miss Lowder said that the Social Security Administration maintains over 100 million individual accounts. Accuracy and completeness of quarterly tax reports filed by employers are essential if earnings are to be credited to the proper accounts. Persons who plan to go to work and have changed their names through marriage, divorce or other means, should visit the social security office and have the official social security records changed to agree with their latest name. In these types of cases, the Social Security office will issue a social security card bearing the new name and the original number.
