

Rambling Sketches Of Oak Grove News

By Mrs. William Wright

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Plonk and children, Miss Mary Rachel and Bill, of Saint Luke, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Wright and family and Mrs. Laura Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Champion and children, Miss Arbradella, Darlece, and Carl Champion, and Mrs. Melba Boyles spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Champion's daughter, Mrs. Newell Thornburg and Pvt. Thornburg of Fort Jackson.

Mrs. Ida Watterson was the spend-the-day guest with Mrs. Marie Bell Friday.

Mrs. Cynthia Lovelace of Shelby spent the past week in the community with relatives and friends.

Mr. Willard Boyles left Saturday for Clear Water, Fla. where he has a position in a printing office. Mrs. Boyles will join him there around the first of September. We regret very much to see them go.

The revival meeting closed Sunday with nineteen new additions to the church. Eleven by Baptism and eight by letter. Rev. W. G. Camp, pastor of Mooresboro and Pleasant Ridge Baptist churches, was the visiting minister.

A number of people from the community attended the Ware reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ford of Kings Mountain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bell and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stacey and children of Long Creek.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my North Carolina friends for their kind expressions of thoughtfulness by their many cards and gifts sent to me during my illness. I regret that I am unable to write to thank you individually.

Evening Business Course To Begin At Gardner-Webb

Gardner-Webb College through the Department of Church-Community Development will offer a complete Business and Commercial Course in the evening beginning September 14, 1953. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings and the hours from 6:30 until 9:30 o'clock have been selected for the class work at the college at Boiling Springs. This addition to the curriculum of the adult education program carries into secular fields that which has been done for the past several years in the field of religion and religious education.

Courses offered include: a Secretarial Course composed of shorthand, typing, and business letters; an Executive Secretarial Course which gives in addition to the above the subjects of bookkeeping, business machines, and business law; and a Bookkeeping Course in which additional work is offered in bookkeeping and accounting.

The College has pioneered in Church-Community Development and Adult Christian Education. This course is designed for the individual who works at home, in the factory, mill, or office to help him to make a reality the desire to further his education or to keep on learning.

The Director, W. Lawson Allen, announces that there are no academic requirements for entrance except an urge to learn and advance in earning capacity. Fees will be comparatively low, and no extra charges will be made for the use of typewriters or other equipment. The course will continue for 36 weeks, which is the length of the academic session at the College. Those who complete the work will be prepared to take their places in positions of responsibility.

Information concerning enrollment, fees, and other matters relative to the Evening Commercial Courses may be obtained by writing or calling the Director of the Department of Church-Community Development at the College.
